Logic and Contemporary Rhetoric Howard Kahane, Nancy Cavender, 2001 Logic and contemporary rhetoric the use of reason in everyday life

Overpaid, Oversexed and Over There David Hepworth, 2020-09-17 The Beatles landing in New York in February 1964 was the opening shot in a cultural revolution nobody predicted Suddenly the youth of the richest most powerful nation on earth was trying to emulate the music manners and the modes of a rainy island that had recently fallen on hard times The resulting fusion of American can do and British fuck you didn't just lead to rock and roll's most resonant music It ushered in a golden era when a generation of kids born in ration card Britain who had grown up with their nose pressed against the window of America's plenty were invited to wallow in their big neighbour's largesse It deals with a time when everything that was being done from the Beatles playing Shea Stadium to the Rolling Stones at Altamont from the Who performing their rock opera at the Metropolitan Opera House to David Bowie touching down in the USA for the first time with a couple of gowns in his luggage was being done for the very first time Rock and roll would never be quite so exciting again

Dynamics of Meteor Outbursts and Satellite Mitigation Strategies Glenn E. Peterson, 1999 The potential threat posed by Leonid meteoroids to orbiting spacecraft over the next several years calls for new dynamic mitigation strategies to assist the satellite community in reducing the danger to its vehicles This book offers deliberate dynamic mitigation strategies to complement the traditional shielding strategies providing mission operators additional ways to decrease the danger Five different attitude control and orbit maneuvering options are examined in detail The information is presented in algorithmic form to allow technically competent but meteoroid inexperienced operators to easily understand the phenomena assess the danger and implement procedures Although general in scope the book emphasizes the Leonid meteor events of the 1998-2002 timeframe
