Forms Whole Rhythm Hierarchy Network:

Forms Caroline Levine, 2017-01-03 A radically new way of thinking about form and context in literature politics and beyond Forms offers a powerful new answer to one of the most pressing problems facing literary critical and cultural studies today how to connect form to political social and historical context Caroline Levine argues that forms organize not only works of art but also political life and our attempts to know both art and politics Inescapable and frequently troubling forms shape every aspect of our experience Yet forms don't impose their order in any simple way Multiple shapes patterns and arrangements overlapping and colliding generate complex and unpredictable social landscapes that challenge and unsettle conventional analytic models in literary and cultural studies Borrowing the concept of affordances from design theory this book investigates the specific ways that four major forms wholes rhythms hierarchies and networks have structured culture politics and scholarly knowledge across periods and it proposes exciting new ways of linking formalism to historicism and literature to politics Levine rereads both formalist and antiformalist theorists including Cleanth Brooks Michel Foucault Jacques Rancière Mary Poovey and Judith Butler and she offers engaging accounts of a wide range of objects from medieval convents and modern theme parks to Sophocles's Antigone and the television series The Wire The result is a radically new way of thinking about form for the next generation and essential reading for scholars and students across the humanities who must wrestle with the problem of form and context Forms \(eGalley\) Caroline Levine, Care and Disability D.

Christopher Gabbard, Talia Schaffer, 2025-02-12 Care and Disability is an edited collection offering critical perspectives on representations of care and disability by emerging and established scholars across multiple periods regions and genres of literary studies The authors demonstrate the range of fields in which care ethics can elucidate alternative cultural and social dynamics including Indigenous African American and Asian texts and historical eras that predate the modern medical profession This collection is committed to drawing out the changing racial gendered classed and sexual elements of care emphasizing how care communities develop as alternatives to the heteronormative couple and the nuclear family Drawing from the care ethics and disability theory the work in this volume demonstrates the possibilities inherent in this new cutting edge field It will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies care ethics sociology narrative medicine Romanticism eighteenth century studies transatlantic nineteenth century studies film and contemporary race studies

After Disruption Trevor Owens, 2024-05-06 The digital age is burning out our most precious resources and the future of the past is at stake In After Disruption A Future for Cultural Memory Trevor Owens warns that our institutions of cultural memory libraries archives museums humanities departments research institutes and more have been disrupted and largely not for the better He calls for memory workers and memory institutions to take back control of envisioning the future of memory from management consultants and tech sector evangelists After Disruption posits that we are no longer planning for a digital future but instead living in a digital present In this context Owens asks how we plan for and develop a more just sustainable and healthy future for cultural memory The first half of the book draws on critical scholarship on the history of technology and business to document and expose the sources of tech startup ideologies and their pernicious results revealing that we need powerful and compelling counter frameworks and values to replace these ideologies The second half of the book makes the case for the centrality of maintenance care and repair as interrelated frameworks to build a better future in which libraries archives and museums can thrive as sites of belonging and connection through collections What Forms Can Do

Patrick Crowley, Shirley Ann Jordan, 2020 How does form propose a bridge between the text and the world beyond This volume investigates the agency of form across a spectrum of twentieth and twenty first century French and Francophone writings renewing the engagement with form that has been a key feature of French cultural production and of analysis in French studies Algebraic Art Andrea K. Henderson, 2018 Algebraic Art explores the invention of a peculiarly Victorian account of the nature and value of aesthetic form and it traces that account to a surprising source mathematics Drawing on literature art and photography it explores how the Victorian mathematical conception of form still resonates today

Literature in a Time of Migration Josephine McDonagh, 2021 Examines nineteenth century British fiction in the light of the new realities of human migration Victorian Poetry, 2016 Ariel, 2016 Crime Scenes Charlotte Lange, Ailsa Peate, 2019 Crime fiction has become a key element in Latin American literature The rise in production of the genre can be explained by an urgency to explore issues of morality in societies which incorporate varying levels of censorship and corruption Through a focus on the concept of the crime scene itself this book identifies and interrogates some of the principal developments in contemporary Latin American crime fiction In ten chapters which cover Argentina Chile Colombia Costa Rica Cuba Mexico and Venezuela and generic diversity which spans police procedurals narcoliteratura postmodern detection and historical portrayals of crimes the authors investigate how the crime scene which has always been central to the genre and its subgenres critiques local and global issues including social injustice discrimination neoliberalism violence identity corruption and memory Das Format der Literatur Carlos Spoerhase, 2018 American Film, 1986-10 Surface Consciousness Mark Taylor, 2003-06-02 Surface is the buzz word in early 21st century architecture and is the main focus of some of the most exciting architectural projects This book expresses the notion that surface is becoming increasingly important as it poses new ways of seeing the world physically and theoretically The Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics R. E. Asher, J. M. Y. Simpson, 1994 Searching Merrelyn Emery, 1982 AA Files, 1991 AAQ.

Architectural Association Quarterly Architectural Association (Great Britain), 1973 Phaidon Encyclopedia of Art and Artists Phaidon Press Limited, 1978 Adapted from the Pall Mall encyclopedia of art Encyclopedia of World Problems and Human Potential, 1986 After Amnesia Attilio Petruccioli, 2007 The book is constituted in four chapters each of which addresses a specific aspect of the the physical realities of the Islamic city The first chapter introduces issues that pertain to the dialectic relationship between buildings cities and civilizations and highlights the typological processes involved The second chapter involves a typological analysis of the Islamic houses which formed the structure of many cities including Fez Mostar Aleppo and Algiers among others Chapter 3 addresses the physical aspects of the building tissue in the Islamic city and the dialectic relations between the building tissue and the larger contextual fabric In chapter 4 the city is analytically described as an urban organism it also involves methods of interpretation while at the same time concluding with the fact that Islamic cities have unique character especially in terms of its spontaneity and intentionality
