, 2002-02-02 Creating America Jan Cohn, 2010-11-23 Before movies radio and television challenged the hegemony of the printed word the Saturday Evening Post was the preeminent vehicle of mass culture in the United States And to the extent that a mass medium can be the expression of a single individual this magazine with a peak circulation of almost three million copies a week was the expression of its editor George Horace Lorimer Cohn shows how Lorimer made the Post into a uniquely powerful magazine that both celebrated and helped form the values of the time Creating America's Future James T. Ziegenfuss, 2008 American citizens assume that the future for this country will be a future much like the past beautiful in many respects This optimistic view is now countered by those who see a country in decay struggling to address problems in health care education the environment international affairs and other sectors This book calls on citizens and their leaders to build the future they most desire The future should not happen to citizens but instead be created by citizens In part one this book examines the reasons for future building and the processes for doing so through interactive public sector private sector dialogue and by applying methods of continuous improvement reengineering and visioning In part two Ziegenfuss presents scenarios of America s future that include the country s points of decay trends vision and strategies in each of the parts of America meaning energy health care transportation business housing and urban development education arts and entertainment science environment agriculture international affairs and defense and law and justice Public and private citizens especially students teachers and planners are encouraged to lead the debates with hope and vision defining

Arthur James Wells, 2009 The Scottish Invention of America, Democracy and Human Rights Alexander Leslie Klieforth, Robert John Munro, 2004-03-02 The Scottish Invention of America Democracy and Human Rights is a history of liberty from 1300 BC to 2004 AD The book traces the history of the philosophy and fight for freedom from the ancient Celts to the creation of America asserting the roots of liberty originated in the radical political thought of the ancient Celts the Scots struggle for freedom John Duns Scotus and the Arbroath Declaration 1320 a tradition that influenced Locke and the English Whig theorists as well as our Founding Fathers particularly Jefferson Madison Wilson and Witherspoon Author Alexander Klieforth argues the Arbroath Declaration 1320 and its philosophy was the intellectual foundation of the American Revolution and Declaration of Independence 1776 Thus the work is a revolutionary alternative to the traditional Anglocentric view that freedom democracy and human rights descended only from John Locke and England of the 1600s The work is the first historical analysis to locate and document the origin of the doctrine of the consent of the governed in the medieval scholar John Duns Scotus c 1290s four centuries before Locke and the English Whigs and in the evolutionary progress of mankind The work contends that the Arbroath Declaration 1320 and its philosophy was the intellectual foundation of the American Revolution and Declaration of Independence 1776 After showing the Scottish influence on the U S Constitution Bill of Rights and the new Federal government the Braudelian style work traces the development of Scottish style freedom and human rights through the French Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen influenced by Jefferson Lincoln s Gettysburg Address that transformed Jefferson s Declaration and Eleanor Roosevelt s role in creating the U N Universal Declaration of Human Rights the foundation of the modern human rights struggle More information about this book is available at the authors website www.braveheartsoul.com
