Mathematics Paper November 2011:

Teaching Primary Mathematics Sylvia Turner, 2012-11-13 Teaching Primary Mathematics covers what student teachers really need to know and why including approaches to teaching and learning planning and assessment and using resources in maths teaching It also provides a brief historical overview of the teaching of mathematics and examines strategies to enhance learning and development as a confident mathematician in the primary classroom Informed by seminal and current research and recent developments in education policy the book also explores the role of mathematics within the primary curriculum the development of mathematics as a subject of study the knowledge that can be gained from considering international approaches to mathematics This is essential reading for all students on primary initial teacher education courses including undergraduate BEd BA with QTS postgraduate PGCE SCITT and School Direct and employment based routes into teaching Sylvia Turner is Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Education at the University of Winchester Genesis of the Financial Crisis R. Macdonald, 2012-06-01 A complete and accessible explanation of the factors contributing to the onset of the 2007 financial and economic crisis The myriad factors are explained in an orderly way with simple terms The anticipation or not and reception of the crisis by mainstream economists and by Austrian economics leads to reflection on the state of economic theory Becoming a Successful Early Career Researcher Adrian Eley, Jerry Wellington, Stephanie Pitts, Catherine Biggs, 2012-08-21 Not that long ago there were fairly clear divisions between researchers at different stages throughout their career starting with doctoral students then progressing to postdoctoral workers and finishing with academic staff However more recently the term Early Career Researcher ECR has been introduced partly as a response to their growing importance which has been reflected by their increased respect and status shown by national international and funding bodies There are several common features of an ECR s job including the need to establish a professional identity and develop into an independent researcher competing for grants and increasing one s output of research publications this book offers proven practical advice to help ECRs kick start a successful academic career With advice on Choosing research topics Making best use of a Research Supervisor Mentor Developing your research writing Getting published journals and books Writing a research grant fellowship Becoming a supervisor Becoming a teacher and Developing your career This guide will help academics at the start of their career no matter what discipline they are engaged in Arts Humanities Sciences or Social Sciences For example in sciences and engineering ECRs are commonly part of a large research team and often have to work in collaborative groups requiring strong interpersonal skills but can lead to tension in the interaction with one s supervisor or mentor In contrast in the arts and humanities and perhaps the social sciences an ECR is more likely to be an independent scholar with a requirement to work alone leading to a different type of relationship but not necessarily any less stressful with one s supervisor or mentor Using case studies from across the subject areas to illustrate key points and give suitable examples this vital guide will help all early career academics Language Description Informed by Theory Rob

Pensalfini, Myfany Turpin, Diana Guillemin, 2014-01-15 This volume explores how linguistic theories inform the ways in which languages are described Theories as representations of linguistic categories guide the field linguist to look for various phenomena without presupposing their necessary existence and provide the tools to account for various sets of data across different languages A goal of linguistic description is to represent the full range of language structures for any given language The chapters in this book cover various sub disciplines of linguistics including phonetics phonology morphology syntax semantics language acquisition and anthropological linguistics drawing upon theoretical approaches such as prosodic Phonology Enhancement theory Distributed Morphology Minimalist syntax Lexical Functional Grammar and Kinship theory The languages described in this book include Australian languages Pama Nyungan and non Pama Nyungan Romance languages as well as English This volume will be of interest to researchers in both descriptive and theoretical linguistics
