Manhattan Project Report:

Now It Can Be Told Leslie M. Groves, 2009-08-11 A first person account of the Manhattan Project by the general who hired and worked alongside Robert Oppenheimer General Leslie Groves and J Robert Oppenheimer were the two men chiefly responsible for the building of the first atomic bomb at Los Alamos code name the Manhattan Project As the ranking military officer in charge of marshaling men and material for what was to be the most ambitious expensive engineering feat in history it was General Groves who hired Oppenheimer with knowledge of his left wing past planned facilities that would extract the necessary enriched uranium and saw to it that nothing interfered with the accelerated research and swift assembly of the weapon This is his story of the political logistical and personal problems of this enormous undertaking which involved foreign governments sensitive issues of press censorship the construction of huge plants at Hanford and Oak Ridge and a race to build the bomb before the Nazis got wind of it The role of Groves in the Manhattan Project has always been controversial In his new introduction the noted physicist Edward Teller who was there at Los Alamos candidly assesses the general s contributions and Oppenheimer s while reflecting on the awesome legacy of their work The basic story is a thriller as strange as any chapter in American history and its drama is heightened by the general s candor and restraint The New Yorker

The Manhattan Project Francis George Gosling, 1999 A history of the origins and development of the American atomic bomb program during WWII Begins with the scientific developments of the pre war years Details the role of the U S government in conducting a secret nationwide enterprise that took science from the laboratory and into combat with an entirely new type of weapon Concludes with a discussion of the immediate postwar period the debate over the Atomic Energy Act of 1946 and the founding of the Atomic Energy Commission Chapters the Einstein letter physics background 1919 1939 early government support the atomic bomb and American strategy and the Manhattan district in peacetime Illustrated
