Gabriele Klein, Sandra Noeth, 2014-04-15 The concept of worldmaking is based on the idea that the world is not given but rather produced through language actions ideas and perception This collection of essays takes a closer look at various hybrid and disparate worlds related to dance and choreography Coming from a broad range of different backgrounds and disciplines the authors inquire into the ways of producing dance worlds through artistic practice discourse and media choreographic form and dance material The essays in this volume critically reflect the predominant topos of dance as something fleeting and ephemeral an embodiment of the Other in modernity Moreover they demonstrate that there is more than just one universal world of dance but rather a multitude of interrelated dance worlds with more emerging every day Independent Theatre in Contemporary Europe Manfred Brauneck, ITI Zentrum Deutschland, 2017-03-15 Over the past 20 years European theatre underwent fundamental changes in terms of aesthetic focus institutional structure and in its position in society The impetus for these changes was provided by a new generation in the independent theatre scene This book brings together studies on the state of independent theatre in different European countries focusing on the fields of dance and performance children and youth theatre theatre and migration and post migrant theatre Additionally it includes essays on experimental musical theatre and different cultural policies for independent theatre scenes in a range of European countries Being in Contact: Encountering a Bare Body Mariella Greil, 2021-03-22 This choreographed book is dedicated to the phenomenon of the bare body in contemporary performance This work of artistic research draws on philosophical biopolitical and ethical discourses relevant to the appearance of bare bodies in choreography setting a framework for a reflexive movement between affect and ethics sensuous address and response Acts of exposure and concealment are culturally situated and anchored and are examined for their methodological and nanopolitical significance The concepts of anarchic responsibility and choreo ethics lead to a reevaluation of contact relationship and solidarity Choreography is thus understood as a complex field of revelatory experiences based on ecologies of aesthetic perception and ethico political agency Singular Plural Ways of Staging Together Iris Julian, 2024-05-06 Focusing on staging processes in contemporary dance and art performance creates new opportunities to study creative participation and co authorship To gain these new insights Iris Julian analyses experimental projects initiated by two groups and a single choreographer Collect if by Collect if Deufert Plischke and Xavier Le Roy By exploring nuances of staging work the concept of singular plural became the analytical guideline and resulted into three research perspectives theatre studies sociology and ontological reading Jean Luc Nancy Michaela Ott Gerald Raunig This approach makes it possible to look beyond the importance that is often credited to single authorship in the arts With a foreword by Prof Dr Gerald Siegmund Arts and Business Elena Raviola, Peter Zackariasson, 2016-10-04 Arts and Business aims at bringing arts and business scholars together in a dialogue about a number of key topics that today form different understandings in the two disciplines Arts and business are many times positioned as opposites Where one is providing symbolic and aesthetic immersion the other is creating goods for a market and markets for a good They often deal and struggle with the same issues framing it differently and finding different solutions This book has the potential of offering both critical theoretical and empirical understanding of these subjects and guiding further exploration and research into this field Although this dichotomy has a well documented existence it is reconstructed through the writing out of business in art and vice versa This edited volume distinguishes itself from other writings aimed at closing the gap between art and business as it does not have a firm standpoint in one of these fields but treating them as symmetrical and equal The belief that by giving art and business an equal weight the editors also create the opportunity to communicate to a wider audience and construct a path forward for art and business to coexist Kollaborative Praxis: Choreographie Martina Ruhsam,2011
