

- The primary role of the security guard is to protect the assigned premises and occupants, as well as to protect against theft, crime, emergencies, fires and other emergencies.
- It is the duty of security to protect others while protecting their own lives.
- A security guard needs to bear a good moral character, pleasing deportment, healthy habits and good grooming in addition to being physically fit, mentally robust, intelligent, committed and proficient the role requires effective communication. The Guard's presence needs to generate.
- Security guards will be called upon to observe the physical environment for changes and suspicious behaviour. This objective is typically achieved by conducting an in-person or remote surveillance of the physical environment.
