Choose from this selection of phrases to add to your descriptive writing about the rainforest.

Similes

as humid as a summer bath
as thick as wet fog
as colourful as a splattered rainbow
as damp as dew
as green as an emerald
as dark as a cavern
as dense as a ball of string
as crowded as a city street
as fragrant as a flower market
as noisy as a motorway

Metaphors

The walls of leaves were impenetrable.
A snake rested on a nest of vines.
The smell of flowers was a warm embrace.
Fireflies danced through the night.
The trickle of water was a whisper.
The sea of green spread out below.
Monkey calls floated down through the branches.
The forest floor was a carpet of earth and roots.
The sounds of rain was never ending.
The canopy was a ceiling of moving art.

Metaphors for, in and of Education Research Andy Davies, Warren Midgley, Karen Trimmer, 2014-09-18 Metaphors for in and of Education Research draws on a variety of philosophical theoretical and methodological approaches exploring metaphors as instruments for describing understanding and inspiring education research Key themes addressed by authors in this collection include how metaphors provide new understandings of the philosophical assumptions underlying education research how metaphors provide new perspectives on methodological issues in education research and how metaphors evoke cognitive affective and volitional responses to the experience of conducting or participating in education research The book includes chapters written by academics with experience in various education sectors including middle high school and tertiary education Areas of academic expertise include doctoral study literacy and learning special education educational partnerships and leadership and applied linguistics

Carbon Footprints as Cultural-Ecological Metaphors Anita Girvan, 2017-10-10 Through an examination of carbon footprint metaphors this book demonstrates the ways in which climate change and other ecological issues are culturally and materially constituted through metaphor The carbon footprint metaphor has achieved a ubiquitous presence in Anglo North American public contexts since the turn of the millennium yet this metaphor remains under examined as a crucial mediator of political responses to the urgent crisis of climate change Existing books and articles on the carbon footprint typically treat this metaphor as a quantifying metric with little attention to the shifting mediations and practices of the carbon footprint as a metaphor This gap echoes a wider gap in understanding metaphors as key figures in mediating more than human relations at a time when such relations profoundly matter As a timely intervention this book addresses this gap by using insights from environmental humanities and political ecology to discuss carbon footprint metaphors in popular and public texts This book will be of great interest to researchers and students of environmental humanities political ecology environmental communication and metaphor studies

Australian Tropical Rainforests Jiro Kikkawa, 1990 Based on contributions to a symposium at the 57th ANZAAS congress in 1987 this book describes and interprets the evolution biology and dynamics of Australia's northern rainforests from scientific humanistic and eco political viewpoints Includes references and an index

Metaphor and Argumentation in Climate Crisis Discourse Anaïs Augé, 2023-06-28 This volume sheds light on the argumentative role of metaphor in climate change discourse unpacking the ways in which stakeholders use specific metaphors to influence perceptions of the climate crisis While existing research has explored the explanatory function of metaphors in communication on climate change this book offers an alternative view one which posits that metaphors can go beyond disseminating scientific observations to promoting biases in the depiction of these observations Aug analyses oft used ideas in climate change communication such as greenwashing drawn from a wide ranging corpus spanning media discourse

scientific discourse NGO communications political speech and social media messages in English The book presents an overview of different arguments conveyed through metaphors around five key themes climate change mitigation the evolution of climate change global and local effects the significance of climate change in specific countries and the relationship between climate change and other contemporary social issues The volume highlights how the complexity of climate change often necessitates the use of metaphor and the value of further research on the argumentative function of metaphor in elucidating its ideological dimensions in climate crisis discourse This book will be of interest to scholars in discourse analysis corpus linguistics cognitive linguistics and environmental communication Cognitive Approaches to Specialist Languages Marcin Grygiel, 2017-05-11 Specialist languages such as the languages of law business aviation football and politics can be perceived as highly conventionalized semi natural and not fully autonomous communication codes limited to specific and predominantly formal situations A large number of them can be best characterized by subject matter and semantic content but the most important distinctive element in their make up is the frame of context in which they are embedded This volume discusses various ways of approaching the problems associated with the very broad phenomenon of specialist languages by means of the analytical mechanisms and theoretical conceptions developed within the framework of Cognitive Linguistics The volume includes research carried out by world renowned experts in the field Australian Rainforests Paul Adam, 1992 Once the dominant vegetation type of the entire continent the Australian rainforests have shrunk over many millions of years to their present limited size However the forests and their history continue to hold valuable lessons for biogeographers and environmentalists This book gives a general account of the Australian rainforests their composition and location and how their present distribution has evolved The author's aim is to provide a broad biogeographical framework that will enable new information to be considered in a global perspective The book concludes with a historical account of human interaction with the rainforest from late Pleistocene times to the 1980s Biogeographers botanists and ecologists at all levels will find this to be a rich source of information and an inspiration for continuing efforts to conserve existing rainforests around the world Teaching Poetry Level 9-12 ETC Montessori Digital, 2018-02-13 Continuing the work that was started with Teaching Poetry Level 6-9 this second part of the curriculum focuses on more advanced types of poetry examples research and activities that are geared towards the students in Elementary II This Language arts module is well written and researched so that it allows your students to enjoy poetry in a low anxiety level environment that fosters creativity imagination and fun The materials are designed to meet CCS standards with each standard is outlined and listed by grade or level A full manual with teacher lessons on how to present each concept is included along with an answer key The Level 9-12 unit includes the following Introduction lessons Additional resources lists CCS standards by level grade Teacher and presentation lesson for each concept Answer key 20 Level 4 task cards 20 Level 5 task cards 20 Level 6 task cards 27 Teacher Presented Nomenclature cards with picture label and definition 24 Types of
