Financial Education in U.S. State Colleges and Universities Donna E. Danns, 2015-11-28 This book addresses the uncertain state of financial literacy among today's college students and examines steps colleges and universities are taking to address this widespread concern. This work introduces a four-fold typology of organizational models for college-based financial education programs and uses these as optics for grouping and presenting case studies. The case studies presented provide a holistic representation of how universities develop, sustain, and grow financial education programs. Details on the nature of programs, goals, administrative support, resources, partnerships, scale of operations, program content, and delivery, advertising, evaluation, program spinoffs, and much more are captured in this work. In addition to detailed case studies, this book presents general findings on the availability of and delivery modes for college-based financial education. This work has significant utility for universities and colleges seeking to implement new financial education programs, change existing programs, improve program relevancy, or expand program delivery on campus.
