Kids Count New Jersey ... ,2016 Britannica Book of the Year 2014 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc.,2014-03-01 The Britannica Book of the Year 2014 provides a valuable viewpoint of the people and events that shaped the year and serves as a great reference source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again The Delusions of Crowds William J. Bernstein,2021-02-23 This disturbing yet fascinating exploration of mass mania through the ages explains the biological and psychological roots of irrationality Kirkus Reviews From time immemorial contagious narratives have spread through susceptible groups with enormous often disastrous consequences Inspired by Charles Mackay s nineteenth century classic Memoirs of Extraordinary Popular Delusions and the Madness of Crowds neurologist and author William Bernstein examines mass delusion through the lens of current scientific research in The Delusions of Crowds Bernstein tells the stories of dramatic religious and financial mania in western society over the last five hundred years from the Anabaptist Madness of the 1530s to the dangerous End Times beliefs that pervade today s polarized America and from the South Sea Bubble to the Enron scandal and dot com bubbles Through Bernstein s supple prose the participants are as colorful as their desire to improve one s well being in this life or the next Bernstein s chronicles reveal the huge cost and alarming implications of mass mania He observes that if we can absorb the history and biology of this all too human phenomenon we can recognize it more readily in our own time and avoid its frequently dire impact Responses to the 'Arabellions' Tanja Börzel,Assem Dandashly,Thomas Risse,2017-10-02 This book studies the reactions by external actors including the European Union to the events unfolding in the Arab world beginning in December 2010 In particular contributors look at external actors attempts to balance their desire for stability with their normative principles toward human rights and democracy The book compares the action and inaction of the EU with other international and regional players including the United States Russia Turkey and Israel and assesses the response of these actors to the Arabellions events analysing changes in their approaches to the Arab region The contributions to this book answer three questions 1 How have external actors assessed the Arabellions and what role did they see for themselves in this context 2 Which goals and instruments did external actors pursue toward the MENA region In particular how did they deal with conflicting goals such as support for human rights and democracy on the one hand and concerns about security and stability on the other 3 How can we explain the varying responses of external actors to the Arabellions This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Integration MSF and THE ROHINGYA 1992-2014 Laurence BINET,2020-11-01 Retention, Persistence, and Writing Programs Todd Ruecker,Dawn Shepherd,Heidi Estrem,Beth Brunk-Chavez,2017-04-01 From scholars working in a variety of institutional and geographic contexts and with a wide range of student populations Retention Persistence and Writing Programs offers perspectives on how writing programs can support or hinder students transitions to college The contributors present individual and program case studies student surveys a wealth of institutional retention data and critical policy analysis Rates of student retention in higher education are a widely acknowledged problem although approximately 66 percent of high school graduates begin college of those who attend public four year institutions only about 80 percent return the following year with 58 percent graduating within six years At public two year institutions only 60 percent of students return and fewer than a third graduate within three years Less commonly known is the crucial effect of writing courses on these statistics First year writing is a course that virtually all students have to take thus writing programs are well positioned to contribute to larger institutional conversations regarding retention and persistence and should offer themselves as much needed sites for advocacy research and curricular innovation Retention Persistence and Writing Programs is a timely resource for writing program administrators as well as for new writing teachers advisors administrators and state boards of education Contributors Matthew Bridgewater Cristine Busser Beth Buyserie Polina Chemishanova Michael Day Bruce Feinstein Patricia Freitag Ericsson Nathan Garrett Joanne Baird Giordano Tawanda Gipson Sarah E Harris Mark Hartlaub Holly Hassel Jennifer Heinert Ashley J Holmes Rita Malenczyk Christopher P Parker Cassandra Phillips Anna Plemons Pegeen Reichert Powell Marc Scott Robin Snead Sarah Elizabeth Snyder Sara Webb Sunderhaus Susan Wolff Murphy

International Broadcasting and Its Contested Role in Australian Statecraft Geoff Heriot, 2023-03-14 This book offers an insightful reappraisal of international broadcasting as discursive rather than soft power in service of democratic statecraft This at a time when issues of transnational media the credibility of news and the perils of disinformation and information warfare figure worryingly in public discourse Reflecting the perspective of middle power Australia author Geoff Heriot locates the strategic utility of multiplatform international broadcasting with reference to contemporary theories of soft hard smart power projection and intercultural communication He applies a fresh model of strategic analysis to the political history of Radio Australia examining the various external and internal variables that resulted in its flawed success in political communication during the late Cold War period

Departmental annual report 2010-11 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2012-04-13 Despite the impressive performance of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office in representing the UK's interests across the globe with what is in Governmental terms a particularly small budget the Foreign Affairs Committee believes that the FCO is under funded This situation has been exacerbated by the Spending Review 2010 and the lack of detail provided by the FCO and the BBC World Service as to exactly how the spending reductions target will be met is disappointing There are concerns about the steps taken by the FCO to adjust to its reduced budget reductions in the deployment of UK based staff overseas and the optimistic planned programme of property sales will have a detrimental impact on the ability of the UK to protect its interests overseas The establishment of the European External Action Service EEAS will place a further strain on the FCO's resources The Committee welcomes the appointment of Lord Williams of Baglan to the post of International Trustee with responsibility for the BBC World Service but reiterates its belief that a formal concordat governing the World Service's budget and output should be drawn up setting out the World Service's independence from budgetary pressures elsewhere in the BBC. The budget cuts faced by the British Council will lead to the Council becoming a substantially different organisation by the end of the Spending Review period. The greater emphasis that the British Council will place on commercial activity risks a diminution of the UK's influence and soft power.

Pitch, Tweet, or Engage on the Street Kara Alaimo, 2020-12-29. The second edition of Pitch, Tweet, or Engage on the Street offers a modern guide for how to adapt public relations strategies, messages, and tactics for countries and cultures around the globe. Drawing on interviews with public relations professionals in over 30 countries as well as the author's own experience, the book explains how to build and manage a global public relations team, how to handle global crisis communication, and how to practice global public relations on behalf of corporations, non-profit organizations, and governments. It takes readers on a tour of the world, explaining how to adapt their campaigns for Asia Pacific, Europe, the Middle East, the Americas, and Sub-Saharan Africa. Along the way, readers are introduced to practitioners around the globe and case studies of particularly successful campaigns. This new edition includes updates to country profiles to reflect changes in each local context, as well as expanded coverage of social media and the role of influencer engagement, and a brand new chapter on global crisis communication. The book is ideal for graduate and upper-level undergraduate public relations students, as well as practitioners in intercultural markets.
