

Macbeth

Macbeth

- A tragic hero
- Macbeth's hamartia (fatal flaw) is greed and ambition
- Macbeth becomes startled as the witches have given voice to his inner ambitions of one day becoming king
- After seeing the witches, Macbeth descends into the path of destruction which will ultimately bring about his demise
- He descends into a deep pit of evil as he commits his Christian soul to hell
- Macbeth becomes a tyrannical leader
- When Macbeth first speaks "so foul and fair a day I have not seen" this demonstrates him slowly becoming a mouthpiece for the Witches' evil, he is a vessel for their misconduct
- Macbeth is an eponymous hero – he is called the play
- Shakespeare employs dramatic irony by seating Banquo in Macbeth's place, his fear is now twofold, extending from both the presence of a ghost and the suggestion that his position as king is under threat
- The bloody apparition of Banquo is a physical manifestation of Macbeth's guilt, it makes it tangible but also serves to expose him to his guests and break his composure – it is the beginning of his downfall as guilt obtains power over him
- Macbeth becomes overzealous (obsessive) in his indulgence in murder, he sends a third murderer out of paranoia and a lack of trust
- The murders of Lady Macduff and her son are emblematic of Macbeth's excessive blood thirst, they presented no threat yet he is now on an unstoppable trajectory of murder
- Lady Macduff also speaks in the semantic field of birds comparing herself to a "diminutive" "wren" which characterises them as prey, thus securing Macbeth within the role of a predator
- Lady Macbeth's death brings out a moment of anagnorisis for Macbeth, he realises the futility of his actions and as a result, submits himself to nihilism
