Sociolinguistics of Style and Social Class in Contemporary Athens Irene Theodoropoulou,2014-09-15 This ethnographic study deals with the ways people in Athens Greece use style to construct their social class identities Including a rich dataset comprising ethnographic interviews with actual people who live in the stereotypically seen as leafy and posh northern suburbs and in the stereotypically treated as working class western suburbs of Athens coupled with data from popular literary novels TV series and Greek hip hop music it argues that the relationship between style and social class identity is mediated by complex social meanings encompassing features from and discourses relevant to both areas which are structured across different orders of indexicality depending on the genre of speech in which they are created As such it will be of interest to scholars in sociolinguistics discourse analysis anthropology sociology Modern Greek studies and to everyone who is interested in how social class is constructed via language

The Rediscovery of America Stuart Andrews,1998-10-15 The Rediscovery of America features some twenty representatives of England France and America whose careers in some sense straddled the Atlantic in the last quarter of the eighteenth century While not establishing causal links between the American and French Revolutions the collective weight of these individual responses to the new America supports the idea of an Atlantic Revolution This study of the writings and transatlantic experiences of the revolutionary generation shows the power of American images in shaping political rhetoric if not political reality

Ottoman-Southeast Asian Relations \(2 vols.\) Ismail Hakkı Kadı,A.C.S. Peacock,2019-11-04 Ottoman Southeast Asian Relations Sources from the Ottoman Archives is a product of meticulous study of Ismail Hakkı Kadı A C S Peacock and other contributors on historical documents from the Ottoman archives The work contains documents in Ottoman Turkish Malay Arabic French English Tausug Burmese and Thai languages each introduced by an expert in the language and history of the related country The work contains documents hitherto unknown to historians as well as others that have been unearthed before but remained confined to the use of limited scholars who had access to the Ottoman archives The resources published in this study show that the Ottoman Empire was an active actor within the context of Southeast Asian experience with Western colonialism The fact that the extensive literature on this experience made limited use of Ottoman source materials indicates the crucial importance of this publication for future innovative research in the field Contributors are Giancarlo Casale Annabel Teh Gallop R fat G nalan Patricia Herbert Jana Igunma Midori Kawashima Abraham Sakili and Michael Talbot
