HHhH Laurent Binet, 2012-04-24 Imagines the story of two Czechoslovakian partisans responsible for assassinating the Butcher of Prague Reinhard Heydrich traces their escape from the Nazis and recruitment by the British secret service

Perspectives Laurent Binet, 2025-02-20 There is no living writer whose new books I fall on with greater delight than Laurent Binet Perspectives is a proper treat Naomi Alderman A dazzling romp Guardian Florence 1557 As dawn breaks a painter is discovered lying on the floor of a church stabbed through the heart Above him the paintings he laboured over for more than a decade At his home a hidden portrait scandalously depicting Maria de Medici daughter of the Duke of Florence as a naked Venus Who is the murderer Who made the painting As the city erupts in chaos Giorgio Vasari the great art historian is picked to lead the investigation Letters fly back and forth carrying news of plots and speculation about the killer s identity between Maria and her aunt Catherine de Medici the queen of France between Catherine and her secret agents and between Vasari and his friend Michelangelo And the truth when it comes to light is as shocking as the bold new artworks that have made Florence the red hot centre of Europe Bursting with characters and colour Perspectives is a mystery like no other that shows us Renaissance Florence as we ve never seen it before a dazzling hugely entertaining novel of court machinations murder and art Doesn t get much better than this Sunday Telegraph A racy and enjoyable detective story The Times A dazzling romp Guardian Funny and very gripping Financial Times

Trauma & Memory Christine Berberich, 2021-03-31 Over the past decades the memory of the Holocaust has not only become a common cultural consciousness but also a cultural property shared by people all over the world This collection brings together academics critics and creative practitioners from the fields of Holocaust Studies Literature History Media Studies Creative Writing and German Studies to discuss contemporary trends in Holocaust commemoration and representation in literature film TV the entertainment industry and social media The essays in this trans disciplinary collection debate how contemporary culture engages with the legacy of the Holocaust now that 75 years on from the end of the Second World War the number of actual survivors is dwindling It engages with ongoing cultural debates in Holocaust Studies that have seen a development from largely testimonial presentations of the Holocaust to more fictional narratives both in literature and film In addition to a number of chapters focusing in particular on literary trends in Holocaust representation the collection also assesses other forms of cultural production surrounding the Holocaust ranging from recent official memorialisation in Germany to Holocaust presentation in film computer games and social media The collection also highlights the contributions by creative practitioners such as writers and performers who use drama and the traditional art of storytelling in order to keep memories alive and pass them on to new generations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History

Civilizations Laurent Binet, 2021-09-14 An ambitious and highly entertaining novel of revisionist history from the author of the international bestseller HHhH Laurent Binet s Civilizations is nothing less than a strangely believable counterfactual history of the modern world fizzing with ideas about colonization empire building and the eternal human quest for domination It is an electrifying novel by one of Europe s most exciting writers Freydis is a woman warrior and leader of a band of Viking explorers setting out to the south They meet local tribes exchange skills are taken prisoner and get as far as Panama But nobody ultimately knows what became of them Fast forward five hundred years to 1492 and we re reading the journals of Christopher Columbus mid Atlantic on his own famous voyage of exploration to the Americas dreaming of gold and conquest But he and his men are taken captive by Incas Even as their suffering increases his faith in his superiority and in his mission is unshaken Thirty years later Atahualpa the last Inca emperor arrives in Europe in the ships stolen from Columbus He finds a continent divided by religious and dynastic quarrels the Spanish Inquisition Luther s Reformation capitalism the miracle of the printing press endless warmongering between the ruling monarchies and constant threat from the Turks But most of all he finds downtrodden populations ready for revolution Fortunately he has a recent bestseller as a guidebook to acquiring power Machiavelli s The Prince The stage is set for a Europe ruled by Incas and Aztecs and for a great war that will change history forever

The Beauty of a Social Problem Walter Benn Michaels,2015-07-13 Bertolt Brecht once worried that how we feel about the victims of a social problem can get in the way of the beauty and attraction of the problem itself In this book Walter Benn Michaels explores the same dilemma through a study of several contemporary artist photographers whose work speaks to questions of political economy Michaels focuses on the work of several artists mostly born in the 1970s and thus raised in a world where artistic ambition has been identified with a critique of autonomous form and of meaning as a function of intention Michaels shows that these artists engage but also push beyond this critique of autonomy and intentionality producing works that embody a new commitment to form and meaning The explanation for this commitment he argues is these artists consciousness of making art in an economy riven by structural conflict especially an unprecedented rise in inequality For them he argues the relationship of the art work to the worldto its subject and to its beholderfunctions as an emblem of the relation between classes rather than identities or subject positions This book will join the short shelf of essential writings about the medium of photography
