First Times Amanda:

In the Early Times Tad Friend, 2022-05-10 In this dazzling John Irving memoir acclaimed New Yorker staff writer Tad Friend reflects on the pressures of middle age exploring his relationship with his dying father as he raises two children of his own How often does a memoir build to a stomach churning I can't breathe climax in its final pages Brilliant intensely moving William Finnegan Pulitzer Prize winning author of Barbarian Days ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR The New Yorker Almost everyone yearns to know their parents more thoroughly before they die to solve some of those lifelong mysteries Maybe just maybe those answers will help you live your own life But life doesn't stop to wait In his fifties New Yorker writer Tad Friend is grappling with being a husband and a father as he tries to grasp who he is as a son Torn between two families he careens between two stages in life On some days he feels vigorous on the brink of greatness when he plays tournament squash On others he feels distinctly weary troubled by his distance from millennial sensibilities or by his own face in the mirror by a grimace that's so like his father's His father an erudite historian and the former president of Swarthmore College has long been gregarious and charming with strangers yet cerebral with his children Tad writes that trying to reach him always felt like ice fishing Yet now Tad's father known to his family as Day seems concerned chiefly with the flavor of ice cream in his bowl and when pushed interested only in reconsidering his view of Franklin Roosevelt Then Tad finds his father's journal a trove of passionate confessions that reveals a man entirely different from the exasperatingly logical father Day was so determined to be It turns out that Tad has been self-destructing in the same way Day has a secret each has kept from everyone even themselves These discoveries make Tad reconsider his own role as a father as a husband and as a son But is it too late for both of them Witty searching and profound In the Early Times is an enduring meditation on the shifting tides of memory and the unsteady pillars on which every family rests EYE CONTACT - the Mysterious Death in 2000 in Maine of Cassidy Bortner and the Wrongful Conviction of Chad Evans in New Hampshire Morrison

Bonpasse, 2011-08-17 Chad Emery Evans was wrongfully convicted in December 2001 in New Hampshire of the murder of Cassidy Bortner the 21-month-old daughter of his girlfriend Amanda Bortner The causes of her death and her injuries are mysterious and disputed but Chad was convicted of second-degree murder On June 2, 2000 Chad met Amanda and their relationship grew rapidly By early July Amanda and Chad were living together Chad's three-year-old son Kyle also lived in the home several days a week through shared custody with Chad's former wife On the morning of November 9, 2000 Amanda took Cassidy to the Kittery, Maine home of her sister Jennifer Bortner and her sister's boyfriend Jefferey Marshall for babysitting for the day Cassidy had a new bruise on one eye due to an accident the previous night when Chad was giving Kyle some batting practice with a brown plastic bat in Kyle's bedroom just before bedtime While wiffle balls were usually used for such fun the ball that Kyle hit into Cassidy's eye was a Tee ball The resulting bruise to Cassidy's left eye was the latest of a series of bruises which had been observed by many people during the fall of 2000 In a time of growing sensitivity to child abuse most of the responsible adults close to Cassidy chose to believe that the bruises and injuries were unfortunate accidents and that they didn't require medical care right away. The life-threatening severity of the injuries was not known or suspected by anyone. Tragically, those adults, including Chad Evans, were unaware that there was something very wrong with Cassidy because of the accidents or perhaps because of a chronic condition, disease, or toxin. Chad Evans never spanked nor hit Cassidy Bortner. He loved and cared for her. Shortly after Noon on the 9th, Jeff Marshall checked on Cassidy and recognized that she was in trouble and seemingly lifeless, and he made several phone calls for help. The EMTs and Kittery Police arrived quickly, but Cassidy was dead when they arrived. As the man living with Cassidy's mother, Amanda Bortner, Chad Evans was an initial suspect. By the time of Chad's 7:10 p.m. interview with the police and within about seven hours of Cassidy's death, the police were focused entirely on Chad and worked thereafter to build the case against him. At his December 2001 trial, Chad took his attorneys' advice not to testify, and his attorneys decided to call only one defense witness. They called the nationally renowned forensic pathologist Dr. Michael Baden, as they thought his testimony was sufficient to establish the reasonable doubt needed for a not guilty verdict. However, their assessment was wrong, and the jury found Chad guilty of most of the charges. In November 2002, Amanda Bortner was tried and found guilty of two counts of child endangerment and sentenced to two years in jail. In 2011, Chad Evans began his tenth year in the New Hampshire State Prison for crimes he didn't commit. He passed a lie detector test given in July 2010. In September 2010, a report was discovered of a DNA test conducted by the Maine State police in March 2001. The test on blood found underneath all ten of Cassidy Bortner's fingernails showed that the blood belonged to Cassidy. The DNA test on the substance on a paper towel found where Cassidy was sitting on the day she died showed saliva that belonged to a male. Prior to Chad's trial, the existence of the blood was in a report available to his defense lawyers, but it was not mentioned by anyone on either side at the trial. The DNA test and report was never disclosed to the defense. Also not disclosed was information about Cassidy's medical appointments in August and September 2000. The jury also did not know about a family gathering four days before Cassidy died, where only one bruise was seen on her right cheek.

Eye Contact tells the story of the wrongful convictions of Chad and Amanda and the campaign for exoneration.
