Geocriticism Real And Fictional Spaces:

Geocriticism B. Westphal, 2011-05-23 Geocriticism provides a theoretical foundation and a critical exploration of geocriticism an interdisciplinary approach to understanding literature in relation to space and place Drawing on diverse thinkers Westphal argues that a geocritical approach enables novel ways of seeing literary texts and of conducting literary studies

Geographies of Memory and Postwar Urban Regeneration in British Literature Alina Cojocaru, 2022-05-13 This book proposes a new approach to the literary representations of London by means of correlating geocriticism spatial literary studies and memory studies in order to investigate the interplay between reality and fiction in mapping the urban imaginary It conducts an analysis of depictions of London in British literature published between 1975 and 2005 exploring the literary representations of the real urban restructurings prompted by the rebuilding projects in war and poverty stricken districts of London the remapping of the metropolis by immigrants gentrification and the displacement of communities as well as the urban dissolution caused by terrorism The selected works of fiction written by Peter Ackroyd Penelope Lively Zadie Smith Andrea Levy J G Ballard Michael Moorcock Doris Lessing and Ian McEwan provide a record of the city in times of de reconstruction emphasizing the structure of London as a palimpsest which becomes a central image The book contributes to the development of the subject field by introducing a number of original concepts which connect geocriticism and memory studies

Of Spaces and Ideas Petr Chalupský, Tereza Topolovská, 2024-11-01 This monograph provides a deeper insight into the work of two contemporary British novelists Jim Crace and Simon Mawer with a particular emphasis on their spatial sensibility as one of the defining elements of their poetics Drawing on a range of literary theoretical approaches to space the study analyses selected novels by the two writers to demonstrate the ways in which they render space and place and above all the ways in which their spatial representations allow them to express the key ideas behind their stories namely those of identity history and the relationship between an individual and the environment in which they live

An Introduction to Literary Geography Daxing Zeng, 2025-09-26 This book the first introductory work of Literary Geography Studies in China justifies literary geography as a discipline running in parallel with literary theory literary criticism and literary history Zeng argues that Literary Geography Studies is a subdiscipline of literary studies rather than an interdisciplinary field or a subfield of geography Zeng believes that in Literary Geography Studies the theories and methodologies of geography are adopted to solve problems in literary studies rather than problems in geography The book has for the first time set up a theoretical framework for Literary Geography Studies as a secondary discipline It has consequently structured the disciplinary knowledge covering topics such as the research object research methodology geographical influence upon literary production geographical distribution of writers geographical space in literary works literary landscapes literary regionality and critical literary geography This framework will be an invaluable tool to future scholars of Literary Geography Studies as it provides a systematic and detailed overview of the field something that is currently lacking in English language publications In addition the book derives its philosophy from ancient Chinese culture and establishes an innovative theoretical framework for Literary Geography Studies based on abundant examples from ancient Chinese literature thus making a significant contribution to the existing literary studies by increasing a geo spatial understanding of ancient Chinese literature

Migrant Writers and Urban Space in Italy Graziella Parati,2017-09-15 This book is about migrants lives in urban space in particular Rome and Milan At the core of the book is literature as written by migrants members of a second generation and a filmmaker who defines himself as native It argues that the narrative authored by migrants refugees second generation women and one native Italian perform a reparative reading of Italian spaces in order to engender reparative narratives Eve Sedgwick wrote about our now traditional way of reading based on unveiling and on mainly negative affect We are trained to tear the text apart dig into it and uncover the anxieties that define our age Migrants writers seem to employ both positive and negative affects in defining the past present and future of the spaces they inhabit Their recuperative acts of writing constitute powerful models of changes in on place As they look at Italian exclusionary spaces they also rewrite them into a present whose transitivity allows to imagine a process of citizenship and belong constructed from below

Naples and the anglophone Tehezeeb Moitra,2025-10-08 This book examines the dialogue between Naples and the anglophone exploring how this interaction unfolds within the increasingly fractured space of the contemporary while addressing the archival significance deeply embedded within the textures of the city The confrontation between the cultures is registered in three critical encounters images of Naples by the photographer Johnnie Shand Kydd the Neapolitan novels by Elena Ferrante and the mosaic at the Toledo metro station by the artist William Kentridge These critical moments of contact permit an interdisciplinary engagement with the modern representation and simultaneous production of Naples which is now more than ever increasingly hybridised in nature

Metamorphoses of (New) Media Julia Genz,Ulrike K uchler,2016-01-14 The current success story of new media and the ongoing digitalisation of our world provide an illuminating starting point for the discussion of the powerful revolutions in our media and media uses initiated by the introduction of a ny new medium how do new media evolve and how do they relate to established old media and media uses What does the rise of new media and media uses imply for other discourses And not least which methodological and theoretical approaches help us to understand these developments Metamorphoses of New Media offers an international and interdisciplinary range of studies on these questions In examining the effects of new media and media uses in fields such as social discourse transmediality and aesthetics the essays in this collection engage with a great variety of examples from political debate on Twitter to digital storytelling and the game like experience of DVDs What these diverse perspectives share however is an approach to Metamorphoses of New Media as an ongoing recursive process of change that initiates dialogue and casts light on existing discursive medial and aesthetic models

The Plausible World B. Westphal,2016-04-30 In The Plausible World the intersections of literature and cartography enable readers to understand that place is anything but purely geographic a plausible world is created as a strategy to fill the void Innovative in his approach Westphal challenges the view that perceptions and representations of space are stable or straightforward

Ecological Exile Derek Gladwin,2017-11-13 Ecological Exile explores how contemporary literature film and media culture confront ecological crises through perspectives of spatial justice a facet of social justice that looks at unjust circumstances as a phenomenon of space Growing instances of flooding population displacement and pollution suggest an urgent need to re examine the ways social and geographical spaces are perceived and valued in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Maintaining that ecological crises are largely socially produced Derek Gladwin considers how British and Irish literary and visual texts by Ian McEwan Sarah Gavron Eavan Boland John McGrath and China Mi ville among others respond to and confront various spatial injustices resulting from fossil fuel production and the effects of climate change This ambitious book offers a new spatial perspective in the environmental humanities by focusing on what the philosopher Glenn Albrecht has termed solastalgia a feeling of homesickness caused by environmental damage The result of solastalgia is that people feel paradoxically ecologically exiled in the places they continue to live because of destructive environmental changes Gladwin skilfully traces spatially produced instances of ecological injustice that literally and imaginatively abolish people s sense of place or place home By looking at two of the most pressing social and environmental concerns oil and climate Ecological Exile shows how literary and visual texts have documented spatially unjust effects of solastalgia This interdisciplinary book will appeal to students scholars and professionals studying literary film and media texts that draw on environment and sustainability cultural geography energy cultures climate change and social justice The Poetics of Agency Tymek

Woodham,2026-03-19 Focusing on the poetry and poetics of four pivotal authors this book examines how experimental approaches to poetic form in the post war United States actively intervened in and reframed period defining questions surrounding the limits and possibilities of human agency Shipwreck and Island Motifs in Literature and the Arts Brigitte Le Juez,Olga Springer,2015 The motifs of island and shipwreck have been present in literature and the arts from ancient times The essays in this volume explore shipwreck and island figures together in literary texts films Reality TV music and art

Explorations Robert T. Tally Jr.,2011-10-03 In recent years the spatial turn in literary and cultural studies has opened up new ways of looking at the interactions among writers readers texts and places Geocriticism offers a timely new approach and this book presents an array of concrete examples or readings which also reveal the broad range of geocritical practices

The Plausible World B. Westphal,2016-04-30 In The Plausible World the intersections of literature and cartography enable readers to understand that place is anything but purely geographic a plausible world is created as a strategy to fill the void Innovative in his approach Westphal challenges the view that perceptions and representations of space are stable or straightforward Transilvania ,2018 Swojskość i utrata Karolina Pospiszil,2016 Ang Pilipinong seaman sa globalisasyon Joanne Visaya Manzano,2018 Social conditions of Filipino seamen in the maritime industry Melville, Mapping and Globalization Robert T. Tally Jr.,2009-08-09 In Melville Mapping and Globalization Robert Tally argues that Melville does not belong in the tradition of the American Renaissance but rather creates a baroque literary cartography artistically engaging with spaces beyond the national model At a time of intense national consolidation and cultural centralization Melville discovered the postnational forces of an emerging world system a system that has become our own in the era of globalization Drawing on the work of a range of literary and social critics including Deleuze Foucault Jameson and Moretti Tally argues that Melville s distinct literary form enabled his critique of the dominant national narrative of his own time and proleptically undermined the national literary tradition of American Studies a century later Melville s hypercanonical status in the United States makes his work all the more crucial for understanding the role of literature in a post American epoch Offering bold new interpretations and theoretical juxtapositions Tally presents a postnational Melville well suited to establishing new approaches to American and world literature in the twenty first century Utopia in the Age of Globalization Robert T. Tally Jr.,2013-02-26 The idea of Utopia has made a comeback in the age of globalization and the bewildering technological shifts and economic uncertainties of the present era call for novel forms of utopia Tally argues that a new form of utopian discourse is needed for understanding and moving beyond the current world system
