Geography Exemplar Paper 1 2014:

Order and Conflict in Public Space Mattias De Backer, Lucas Melgaço, Georgiana Varna, Francesca Menichelli, 2016-05-20
Which public and whose space The understanding of public space as an arena where individuals can claim full use and access hides a reality of constant negotiation conflict and surveillance This collection uses case studies concerning the management use and transgression of public space to invite reflection on the way in which everyday social interaction is framed and shaped by the physical environment and vice versa International experts from fields including geography criminology sociology and urban studies come together to debate the concepts of order and conflict in public space This book is divided into two parts spaces of control and spaces of transgression Section I focuses on formal and informal surveillance and the politics of control using case studies to compare strategies in spaces including Olympic cities luxury skyscrapers residential neighbourhoods and shopping malls Section II focuses on transgressive or deviant behaviour in public spaces with case studies examining behaviour in nightlife districts governance of homelessness boy racer culture and abortion protests The epilogue concludes the book with an exploration of possible future avenues for research on public space and a critical appraisal of the concept of public space itself This interdisciplinary collection will be of interest to students researchers and professionals in the areas of criminology sociology surveillance studies human and social geography and urban studies and planning

Global Challenges in the Arctic Region Elena Conde, Sara Iglesias Sánchez, 2016-08-05 Bringing together interconnected discussions to make explicit the complexity of the Arctic region this book offers a legal discussion of the ongoing territorial disputes and challenges in order to frame their impact into the viability of different governance strategies that are available at the national regional and international level One of the intrinsic features of the region is the difficulty in the determination of boundaries responsibilities and interests Against this background sovereignty issues are intertwined with environmental and geopolitical issues that ultimately affect global strategic balances and international trade and at the same time influence national approaches to basic rights and organizational schemes regarding the protection of indigenous peoples and inhabitants of the region This perspective lays the ground for further discussion revolving around the main clusters of governance focusing on the Arctic Council and the European Union with the particular roles and interest of Arctic and non Arctic states and the impact on indigenous populations environment including the relevance of national regulatory schemes and the intertwinement with concerns related to energy or migration strategy concentrating in geopolitical realities and challenges analysed from different perspectives and focusing on different actors and covering security and climate change related challenges This collection provides an avenue for parallel and converging research of complex realities from different disciplines through the expertise of scholars from different latitudes
