Controversies in Medium of Instruction Reform Shek Kam Tse, Wing Wah Ki, Mark Shiu Kee Shum, 2021-10-25 The book is an in depth and comprehensive analysis of the case of language in education reform and language policy controversies of Hong Kong over the initial two decades after 1997 It is a scholarly monograph of conscientious educators and researchers who have been active during the education reform collaborating with different parties on school development and classroom teaching experiments This book provides a multiple perspective investigation into the education and language matters Besides socio political perspectives this book also emphasizes the frontline educational and practical perspectives The book explores the benefits and effective methods of mother tongue and multi lingual teaching that have emerged in the period Based on the problematic experience of language purism and bifurcation in the reform the book argues for an inclusive multilingual education policy with mother tongue as the core This book provides potential solutions and good practices to tackle the complex issues brought about by medium of instruction policy reforms in post colonial times Hong Kong's Chinese History Curriculum from 1945 Flora L.F. Kan, 2007-01-01 Hong Kong's Chinese History Curriculum from 1945 Politics and Identity investigates the ways in which Chinese history has evolved as a subject in Hong Kong secondary schools since 1945 and the various social political and economic factors that have shaped the curriculum through an examination of a wide range of primary and secondary source materials and interviews This book examines how the aims content teaching learning and assessment of the Chinese history curriculum have evolved since 1945 It describes how Chinese history became an independent subject in secondary schools in Hong Kong despite the political sensitivity of the subject how it consolidated its status during the colonial period and how it has faced threats to its independence since the return of Hong Kong to China in 1997 An important element of the book is its in depth analysis of the major socio political and socio economic forces that have been involved in the development of Chinese history This book will be of interest to all who are interested in history education and curriculum development and readers who are concerned with history education Validating

Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders Criteria for Awarding School Leaving Certificates Frances M. Ottobre, 2014-05-19 Criteria for Awarding School Leaving Certificates An International Discussion focuses on formal and official evaluation of school learning and student achievement at the time schooling is discontinued The book is based on the proceedings of the 1977 Conference of the International Association for Educational Assessment held at the Kenyatta Conference Center in Nairobi Kenya on May 23 28 1977 The selection first discusses school leaving examinations as a function of external and educational factors and the terms of reference for school leaving examinations The book also takes a look at the comparability of grading standards in public examinations in England and Wales basic assessment issues in school leaving examination programs and the case for school leaving examinations in The Netherlands The text reviews the alternatives to school leaving examinations in Sweden and Brazil as well as the abolition of final examination transition from secondary school to higher education and support structures The book also ponders on the structure of secondary school system in Austria Australia Bermuda Cyprus Hong Kong India and Ireland The selection is a dependable reference for readers interested in school learning and student achievement measurements

The Making of an Alienated Generation Sai-Wing Leung,2019-07-23 First published in 1997 this volume examines the political apathy of the Hong Kong Chinese with a particular focus on children in secondary schools While most previous studies have been of adults Leung s approach exposes a generation who are politically uninvolved and disenchanting He examines teacher student encounters in a depoliticized school context and through a curriculum in which explicit political content is absent The study throws light both on Chinese youths and the interaction of older and younger generations and its macroscopic implications are distinctly ominous suggesting trouble ahead for the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Journal of Historical Research in Music Education ,2000 Living in Hong Kong ,2003
