

The Evil That Is Corruption

“There is a sufficiency in the world for man’s need but not for a man’s greed,” as said by Mahatma Gandhi. This statement explains that a man’s needs in life can be deemed to be enough in which one is already contented with what they possess or have. On the other hand, the statement explains that there is no boundary or extent in a human being’s greed due to discontentment in what they have in their life, and in some cases jealousy that aroused from an individual comparing themselves to those around them. Greed in a man may also be present because of the concept of human beings being self-centered by nature. This self-centeredness can lead one to have the urge to want things more—like power, money, fame, and food—all to themselves. Corruption is like an apple that politicians like to chew on to benefit themselves and the more they consume it, the more greed and evil corrupts them. It can be seen that people in society and the government officials are slowly developing this excessive want for things which then leads the country to cases of graft and corruption that continues to be prevalent.

The most famous case of corruption in the country was the “Pork Barrel Scam” which involved a businesswoman named Janet Napoles with numerous politicians accused of stealing $229 million worth of Philippine taxpayer money. This scheme was done by creating fake non-governmental organizations where money would enter and they her and accomplices earned the $229 million. Napoles’ former associate was the whistleblower and testified in a public hearing that Janet Napoles received so much cash that she would stash it in her own bathtub. Before she was arrested, Napoles denied that she was involved in the scheme and said that her fortune came from her family’s coal mining business in Indonesia. Napoles then said that she had distributed the funds as
