Community Assocations Stephen R. Barber,Vickie Gaskill,2008 A. M. B. E. R. Management a Proactive Guide for Property Managers, All Condominium and HOA Board Members Alan Fabius,2019-03-06 Congratulations you have just taken your first proactive step in this world of property management by seeking additional information With three decades of Property Management experience I have developed a simple system that is organizationally sound and easy to incorporate It will equally distribute responsibilities of each member of the Board and give them a separate goal or purpose It facilitates the Board with a team approach rather than all of the work falling into the Presidents hands It will alleviate the overwhelming burden typically accepted by the President of the Board and streamline Board meetings I will alter your management approach from reactive or waiting to react after problems occur to proactive or acting before problems occur Additionally there are many benefits to my system lower yearly costs greater levels of resident satisfaction and your property values will increase On the other hand you can stop reading and just wait like the majority of residents until the next magical day I describe a magical day as running around with buckets towels and trashcans hoping to save your precious belongings from inevitable saturation It is also interesting to question why does it take so long for a reactive maintenance department to act if they were waiting and prepared Remaining with a reactive style of management will ensure that there will be many more magical days in your communities future Alternatively I welcome you to explore the benefits of my Proactive A M B E R Property Management System State of Colorado Real Estate Manual Colorado Real Estate Commission,2019

Leading Your HOA Tom Maletic,2016-03-17 I wrote this book to serve as a primer on the basics of what you can do to Make your personal time on the board more satisfying Produce value for the homeowners in your HOA Encourage other homeowners to volunteer to make their HOA a better place to live This is a foundation book I want you as a volunteer board member to have a foundation of knowledge in what a homeowners association is and how it should work I have seen too many homeowners associations in which new board members have no basic knowledge in association best practices and they get caught up in the emotions of making decisions for their neighbors Their volunteer time turns in to a frustrating experience and the existing problems persist with the association With a good foundation I believe you will be able to learn more about community associations and the common issues that confront them With this book you will have an outline that will help you organize your thoughts build on a solid framework and make your volunteer time valuable to you and to your neighbors
