Hollywood Chinese Arthur E. Dong, 2008      A Study Guide to the AP Chinese Language & Culture Test Wei-ling Wu, 2013      The Early Transnational Chinese Cinema Industry Yongchun Fu, 2019-03-04 Based on extensive original research including in studio archives industrial surveys official records trade journals and English and Chinese newspapers this book explores the role of the American film industry in the development of cinema in China It examines the Chinese industry s response to the American industry and the consequences of this response It also considers the attitudes of Chinese film practitioners towards Hollywood and the contribution of those figures who acted as intermediaries between the two industries Overall the book casts much new light on the early development of the film industry in China and demonstrates the huge influence Hollywood had on it Winner of the inaugural 2021 New Zealand Asia Society Book Award second prize

Towards Financial Superpower Lerong Lu, 2025-05-13 The topic of the financial industry from both practical and regulatory perspectives has been widely debated since the Global Financial Crisis of 2007 2008 but the discussion is mostly framed within a Western context However China now boasts one of the largest and most dynamic financial systems in the world and has three of the largest global stock markets as well as the gigantic commercial banks such as the ICBC and the Bank of China It is actively opening its financial markets by reforming its securities law and introducing stock connect schemes with exchanges in the UK and Switzerland and also has the most advanced Fintech and mobile payment sector China s central bank digital currency CBDC pilot project is already being rolled out on a national scale contributing to the rise of the Chinese yuan as a new global currency In this volume Lerong Lu explores the remarkable rise of China s financial industry its detailed operating mechanisms and regulatory frameworks and regime He examines the legal and regulatory environments underpinning this industry including its regulatory agencies and institutional arrangements such as the People s Bank of China the National Financial Regulatory Administration and the China Securities Regulatory Commission financial safety net and crisis management tools and specialized financial courts and dispute resolution mechanisms Lu captures the fast changing and dynamic nature of China s financial institutions and markets from three unique angles financial marketization financial globalization and financial innovation Through detailed case studies the author critically assesses the strengths and special characteristics of these financial institutions markets and currencies in the world s second largest economy addressing if and when China becomes the next global financial superpower      Shanghai Filmmaking HUANG Xuelei, 2014-09-03 In Shanghai Filmmaking Huang Xuelei invites readers to go on an intimate detailed behind the scenes tour of the world of early Chinese cinema She paints a nuanced picture of the Mingxing Motion Picture Company the leading Chinese film studio in the 1920s and 1930s and argues that Shanghai filmmaking involved a series of border crossing practices Shanghai filmmaking developed in a matrix of global cultural production and distribution and interacted closely with print culture and theatre People from allegedly antagonistic political groupings worked closely with each other to bring a new form of visual culture and a new body of knowledge to an audience in and outside China By exploring various border crossings this book sheds new light on the power of popular cultural production during China s modern transformation
