Manual Group Therapy Adolescents:

Group Exercises for Adolescents, 2010 Group Therapy with Children and Adolescents Barbara B. Siepker, Christine S. Kandaras, 1985 Group Exercises for Adolescents Susan Carrell, 2010-08 This how to manual begins with an overview of adolescent development and the organisation of group therapy sessions The curriculum of 25 exercises covers issues central to adolescence including sex drugs and alcohol emotionality and identity Group Exercises for Adolescents Susan Carrell, 2000-01-20 An invaluable tool that avoids the usual psychobabble Group Exercises for Adolescents Second Edition is a no nonsense guide that provides a complete group program for therapists counselors and other helping professionals who work with adolescents BOOK JACKET Handbook of Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals Craig W. LeCroy, 1994 In the field of child and adolescent therapy there are numerous books describing theories and techniques of treatment Until now there has been no clear presentation of how such theories translate into day to day practice Craig LeCroy offers specific treatment manuals for carrying out particular programs including group treatment for children of divorce for social skills training and for the prevention of drug use as well as treatment of childhood anxiety and depression of academic problems of conduct disorders and for anger management among others Each treatment manual is based on extensive field testing by the author The Handbook of Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals provides practitioners students and researchers with specific methods and procedures used with children and adolescents Each chapter is a specific treatment guide that has been tested and carefully refined through use presenting concrete step by step instructions for effectively treating various child and adolescent behavior problems The book covers the major clinical disorders and social problems facing children and adolescents as well as new developments and refinements in the treatment of these problems Experts in the field provide descriptions of treatment approaches for rational emotive therapy with children social skills training anger control training adolescent relapse prevention divorce adjustment groups parent adolescent conflict and more The Handbook of Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals is designed to be an important reference handbook for practitioners in various child and adolescent settings including schools mental health clinics residential treatment centers group homes family service agencies and juvenile correction centers BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Group Exercise for Adolescents Susan Carrell, 2010 Described in the introduction as more a menu planner than a cookbook offering an array of selections that create an attractive as well as a nourishing menu for teens both troubled or not Although the basic meals are planned there is ample room for the signature of the therapist who prepares them Therapy Manuals for Drug Addiction, 1998

Therapy Manuals for Drug Addiction José Szapocznik, 2003 Group Therapy with Adolescent Girls in Foster Care Carolin Heindel, 2011 The estimated 513 000 children presently living in foster care in the United States are at particularly increased risk for mental health problems as a result of neglect and physical emotional and sexual abuse endured in their dysfunctional family settings They experienced traumatic separation from their homes families and friends and ongoing disruptions to their daily lives However only twenty percent of foster children in need of mental health services actually receive them In response to this deficit in services this treatment manual was created to provide clinicians specifically within the Foster Care Counseling Project FCCP at Rutgers University with a tool that helps them provide group therapy for adolescent females in foster care This manual is intended to give clinicians basic theoretical knowledge about group psychotherapy adolescence and the foster care population as well as provide a sense of structure and practical guidance on the process of facilitating a group of this nature It is a resource that outlines logistics that need to be anticipated prior to the first group session supplies handouts and important forms describes the different stages of group development and potential challenges that may arise and recommends activities created to meet the therapeutic needs of the foster care population as well as the developmental needs of adolescents in general Although this manual was based on a therapy group for adolescent females within the FCCP most principles and activities can be applied beyond this particular population and agency
