

10 SIGNS SOMEONE IS LYING TO YOU

They change their head position quickly.

If you see someone suddenly jerk their head when you ask them a direct question, they may be lying to you about something.

Their breathing changes.

When someone is nervous and lying to you, they may begin to breathe more heavily. Their shoulders rise and their voice gets shallow.

They stand very still.

Relaxed, unconscious movements come naturally in normal conversation, so a rigid stance should be a major red flag.

They repeat words or phrases.

This happens because they're trying to convince you, and themselves, of something. Repetition is also a way to buy time as they gather their thoughts.

They touch or cover their mouth.

People unconsciously cover their mouths when they want to avoid answering a question — both literally and figuratively halting conversation.

They instinctively cover vulnerable body parts.

You've likely hit a nerve if someone's hand moves to cover parts of their throat, chest, neck, head, or abdomen.

They tend to point a lot.

Liars become defensive when they think you discovered their lie, which may result in a lot of pointing.

They provide too much information.

An excess of details is often a sign of lying. Liars hope that talking a lot will be perceived as openness and truthfulness.

It becomes difficult for them to speak.

Our mouths get dry when we're stressed and lying. Other signs to watch for include sudden lip biting or pursed lips.

They stare at you without blinking much.

When people lie, it's common for them to break eye contact, but the liar could go the extra mile to maintain eye contact in an attempt to control and manipulate you.

crucial role in our everyday life we cannot control At this point of the written assignment there should be a better knowledge of body language and therefore the relationship between the spoken and the unspoken words are analysed This is very important because nonverbal and verbal communication always go hand in hand As we already experienced and will experience in our career there are many different cultures and with that many different cultural meanings of body language especially in mimic and gesture Because of the internationality in the world and the everyday contact to other cultural groups we have to understand the meaning of their body language We will underscore this with some examples chosen Our actual topic Body language at the workplace is divided into four chapters beginning with the career interview in which the most important behaviours we have to pay attention to are explained The occupational body language deals with the kind of body language you automatically use according to your job and workplace Because of our field of studies we will go into the effective use of meetings which might be seen as a little guide to the future To ensure a good work climate attitudes to workmates play an important role because in regard to your behaviour you will be either respected or disrespected And because it is important for business people to know if their opposite is lying we figured out the main aspects to expose the liar With our last point we are trying to show how easy it is to manipulate your own body language which makes it even harder for others to understand the meaning of it
