QUARTERLY REPORT

As a manager, you've probably written hundreds of quarterly or annual reports in your career. And because you're a manager, it's expected that you understand the value of having a refresher of the basics from time to time.

Oversee the Entire Operation

From time to time, roam around the work premises and take notes of your employees' performances and productivity.

Gather Your Daily Reports & Monthly Reports

There might be some issues and occurrences on your previous daily reports and monthly reports that haven't been resolved yet.

Emphasize Significant Occurrences

It's important to emphasize and highlight significant occurrences in a way that they'll become a top priority.

Keep It Simple

What's being implied by this tip is that quarterly reports must be straight to the point all the time.

Review Everything

Once you're done injecting all the need information in your quarterly report, take some time to go over it, edit and proofread from start to finish before submitting it to your superiors.
