Memorial Day

Monday, May 26, 2008

Rev. Andrew A. Czajkowski
St. John the Evangelist Parish
Davison, Michigan

Memorial Day is primarily a national holiday on which we remember and honor those men and women who have given their lives for our country. In the words of Abraham Lincoln: "It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this." It is fitting and proper for us to observe Memorial Day, not only as Americans but as Catholics. By divine appointment, we are members of a home, of a community, of a nation, just as to be Catholic is to be a member of the Church of Jesus Christ. To live as God intended us to live, we must fulfill our obligations in each of these spheres.

"...our fathers brought forth upon this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal."

The land which the Fathers of our nation have bequeathed to us is the land of liberty and equality. The flag which they lifted over it is a flag which stands for freedom of thought, of speech, of conscience, of worship. And it represents the right of every citizen to enjoy these freedoms and equal opportunity to make the most out of his God-given capabilities.

The Founding Fathers accepted this liberty and equality as a sacred trust from the hand of God and taught us to praise the power that has made and preserved us as a nation. Are we worthy heirs of such riches? Do we prize them so highly that we constantly thank God for them? Do we appreciate the high privilege of American
