The Spirit of Texas Ghost Towns

by Brooke South, Staff Writer

1 Many towns throughout the state of Texas were once busy with banks, schools, general stores, and post offices. They may have been mining towns or oil towns. Then, the towns were abandoned. Perhaps oil wells stopped producing or roads or railroads were not built near the towns. In some cases, natural disasters destroyed homes and businesses. People moved from the areas. These settlements became ghost towns.

Ghost Town

2 Terlingua is one of more than 500 ghost towns in Texas. By 1900, four mining companies operated in the area, and 308 people lived in Terlingua. A new company opened in 1903. Additional miners moved to the town. Terlingua's population grew to 1,300 people. Soon, the small town boomed with a post office, school, general store, and hotel. The mining companies were successful until 1945. Then, the mines closed and less than 400 people remained in the town. By 1994, Terlingua was home to only 25 residents, however, tourists continue to visit this historic ghost town when they vacation at Big Bend National Park and the Rio Grande River.
