

A close-up photograph of a person's hands, wearing a light-colored suit jacket, holding a piece of aged, yellowed paper. The paper has the words "DROP CHARGES" printed in large, bold, black letters. Below the title, there is some faint, illegible text. The person is holding the paper over a dark wooden desk. In the foreground, a black gavel with a silver ferrule is visible. The background shows a wooden bookshelf filled with books.

Manual Criminal Charges Drop:

Handbook of Domestic Violence Intervention Strategies Albert R. Roberts, 2002-03-28 Public awareness regarding the life threatening nature and intense traumatic impact of domestic violence has substantially increased in the past decade. At the same time dramatic changes have taken place regarding criminal justice and social work policies and practices applied to domestic violence intervention. And while the prevalence of domestic violence has declined slightly national estimates still indicate that every year approximately eight million women are abused, battered, stalked or killed by their husbands, boyfriends and other intimate partners. Featuring cutting edge research and expert intervention strategies, the Handbook of Domestic Violence Intervention Strategies: Policies, Programs and Legal Remedies is designed to prepare professionals to swiftly and compassionately meet the multiple needs of women and children who have suffered from domestic violence. This original and indispensable volume focuses on the numerous advances in legal remedies, program developments, treatment protocols and multidisciplinary perspectives. It is a comprehensive guide to the latest research, public policies and legal and criminal justice responses covering federal and state legislation as well as trends in police and court responses to domestic violence. This is the first book to include court based technology developments and new research related to the duration and intensity of woman battering. Highlighting actual cases and promising programs, the handbook also addresses important social work issues including risk assessment protocols, a new five level continuum of woman battering intervention methods and treatment models. The book also examines the myriad legal issues and health problems facing the most neglected and vulnerable battered women. Written by expert practitioners and leading scholars in the field, the book's 23 chapters provide rich insights into the complexities and challenges of addressing domestic violence. This timely and definitive handbook is recommended for students, clinicians, policy makers and researchers in the fields of social work, victim services, criminal justice, hospital administration, mental health, counseling, public health, pastoral counseling, law enforcement. In fact, this volume is a critical resource for all helping professionals who are assisting abused women in escaping and remaining free from violent relationships.

Flying in the Face of Criminalization Andreas Mateou, Sofia Mateou, 2026-03-31 Flying in the Face of Criminalization examines the critical intersection between aviation safety investigations and criminal proceedings. This comprehensive analysis reveals how the legal system's punitive approach often conflicts with aviation's core objective of learning from mistakes to enhance safety. The new edition significantly expands coverage through 2025, documenting the increase in litigation against aviation professionals and organizations following accidents and serious incidents. It provides crucial insights into recent developments in corporate criminal liability, manslaughter charges and corporate homicide cases that have transformed accountability standards across the industry. With an unparalleled collection of cases from January 2010 to June 2025, with updates to the Boeing 737 MAX and AF 447 litigation until 30 November 2025, the book explores how varying legal systems worldwide apply liability principles inconsistently and create uncertainty for aviation professionals.
