Falling Awake Alice Oswald, 2016-08-18 Winner of the Costa Poetry Award Shortlisted for the T S Eliot Award and the Forward Prize These lyrics illustrate poetry's unique ability to shock readers into a renewed awareness of the world Washington Post Falling Awake winner of the Costa Award for Poetry give us the sensation of living alongside the natural world of being a spectator to the changes that mark our mortality Dan Chiasson The New Yorker Falling Awake expands on the imagery of fallen soldiers from Homer's Iliad portrayed in her previous volume Memorial defining life as a slowly falling weight where beings fight against their inevitable end Oswald reimagines classical figures such as Orpheus and Tithonus alive in an English landscape together with shadows flies villagers dew crickets all characterized in tension between the weight of death and their own willpower FROM VERTIGO let me shuffle forward and tell you the two minute life of rain starting right now lips open and lidless cold all seeing gaze Live Artefacts Terence Cave, 2022-04-07 Literary artefacts the stories people tell the songs they sing the scenes they enact are neither a by product nor a side issue in human culture They provide a model of everything that cognition does They refuse to separate thought from emotion bodily responses from ethical reflection perception from imagination logic from desire Above all they demonstrate the essential fluidity and mobility of human cognition its adaptive inventiveness If we are astonished by the art of Chauvet or Lascaux as an early model of human cognition then we should be continually astonished by what literature is and does as it reaches beyond itself to reimagine the world This book argues that literary artefacts are quasi autonomous living entities fashioned to animate captured environments embodied people and other creatures ways of being and living that remain virtual They own a freely delegated agency that allows them to speak to listeners and readers present and distant present and future adapting themselves and their meanings to whatever cognitive environment they encounter Such an approach offers a way of linking a close attention to the specific properties of literary artefacts with the insights of cognitive anthropology and archaeology and thus of satisfying the conditions for a properly interdisciplinary understanding of literature It aims both to defend literary study against utilitarian and reductive arguments of all kinds and to argue that literary artefacts may give us new insights into how the mind and its indispensable substratum the brain functions in the human ecology

Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Isabel Sobral Campos,2018-12-27 Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Critical Essays surveys ecopoetry from a global perspective across different historical epochs Its comparative approach foregrounds the importance of ecopoetics within the context of distinct national literatures and cultures to reveal the ubiquitous intersection of poetry with ecocriticism The collection analyzes environmental problems resulting from the legacies of colonialism and focuses on issues of environmental justice and indigenous issues as well as on the intersection of genocide studies and environmentalism It also examines ecologically informed modes of relating to the world In particular it engages with interactions between the human and nonhuman as well as mind and matter Finally it broadens the scope of place to include both the absent land of exiled peoples and the urban built environment
