Country of Writing Lydia Wevers, 2002 This pioneering examination of travel writing about New Zealand in the colonial period discusses a wide range of writing that helped place New Zealand on the literary map while providing an oblique history of the young nation in the 19th century Exploring early newspaper accounts the journals of missionaries traders and adventurers and the guidebooks and specialized descriptions of fishing and hunting which promoted New Zealand as a sporting paradise Wevers finds that writing about New Zealand was an essential tool in the colonization process False Summit Julie Rak, 2021-04-14 The race to climb Everest catapulted mountain climbing with its accompanying images of conquest and sport into the public sphere on a global scale But as a metaphor for the pinnacle of human achievement mountaineering remains the preserve of traditional white male heroism False Summit unpacks gender politics in the expedition narratives and memoirs of mountaineers in the Himalayas and the Karakoram Why are women still a minority in the world's highest places Julie Rak proposes that the genre has itself reached a false summit a peak that proves not to be the pinnacle and that mountaineering is not ready to welcome other ways of climbing or other kinds of climbers For more than two centuries mountaineering as an activity and as an ideal has helped shape how the self is understood within the context of conquest adventure and proximity to risk As climbing shows signs of becoming more diverse Rak asks why change is so hard to achieve and why gender bias and other inequities exist in climbing at all Exploring classic and lesser known expedition accounts from Everest K2 and Annapurna False Summit helps us understand why mountaineering remains one of the most important ways to articulate gender identities and politics Problems and Parables of Law Josef Stern, 1998-01-01 A rigorous analysis of Maimonides and Nahmanides explanations of the Mosaic commandments that challenges received notions of the relation between these two seminal thinkers Country Guide and Nor'west Farmer, 1920 Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook, 2005 Willing's Press Guide, 2004 Coverage of publications outside the UK and in non English languages expands steadily until in 1991 it occupies enough of the Guide to require publication in parts Bibliographic Guide to Latin American Studies Benson Latin American Collection, 1981 Motor West and California Motor, 1923 Montgomery Ward [catalog].
