

Lesson 1.18

Shakespeare's Original Text	Rhetoric No Rhetoric	Modern or College Edition
Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?            Thou art more lovely and more temperate:            Rough winds do shake the darling buds of May,            And summer's lease hath all too short a date:            Sometime too hot the eye of heaven shines,            And often is his gold complexion dimm'd;            And every fair from fair sometime declines,            By chance or nature's changing course untrimm'd,            But thy eternal summer shall not fade,            Nor lose possession of that fair thou ow'st,            Nor shall death brag thou wand'rst in his shade,            When in eternal lines to time thou grow'st:            So long as men can breathe or eyes can see,            So long lives this, and this gives life to thee.		temperament is milder            lease is time            dimm'd is blocked by clouds            in his shade is in the underworld

Directions: Answer the following questions after reading the sonnet.
