The Concise Guide to American Aircraft of World War II David Mondey,1996-07-01 Over 130 American warplanes profiled alphabetically illustrated with full specifications and a brief history of each plane Concise Guide in Colour - Ships Ing. Jarmir Kozak,1973 Churchill's Eagles Richard Mead,2024-06-30 offers a critical perspective on how the socialization of RAF officers in public schools influenced the force s operational culture Mead provides compelling evidence that while the system produced leaders of character and discipline it could also stifle innovation with consequences that reverberated throughout the RAF s wartime efforts The Journal of the Air Force Historical Foundation The RAF did not come of age until the Second World War The role of its forerunners in the Great War the Royal Flying Corps and the Royal Naval Air Service although important was peripheral to that of the ground forces The founding father of the RAF Lord Trenchard was determined that it should become a fully fledged third service equal in status to the Royal Navy and British Army and this he succeeded in doing between the wars firstly by setting up the RAF College at Cranwell and Staff College at Andover and secondly by providing a cost effective policeman of the more rebellious parts of the British Empire By 1939 the RAF had grown substantially but of the three best aircraft of the coming War only the Supermarine Spitfire was in service as neither the Avro Lancaster nor the De Havilland Mosquito would be available until early 1942 Aircraft however were not enough It was the leaders of the RAF the subjects of this book who would take the battle to the enemy and who after six long years would prevail Dambuster-in-Chief Richard Mead,2020-12-30 A fascinating biography of one of the most important figures in Bomber Command during the Second World War History of War Ralph Cochrane was born in 1895 into a distinguished naval family After joining the Royal Navy he volunteered in 1915 to serve with the RNAS in airships and was an early winner of the Air Force Cross In 1918 he transferred to the fledgling RAF and learned to fly serving in Iraq as a flight commander under Bomber Harris His inter war career saw him as a squadron commander in Aden before he became the first Chief of Air Staff of the Royal New Zealand Air Force During the Second World War he served mainly in Bomber Command and commanded 5 Group from early 1943 He formed 617 Squadron and was instrumental in planning the legendary Dambuster Raid the most spectacular of the War as well as the sinking of the battleship Tirpitz An inspirational leader he trained 5 Group in low level target marking skills Post war Cochrane held a string of senior appointments commanding Transport Command Flying Training Command and finally as Vice Chief of Air Staff retiring in 1952 He died in 1977 A brilliantly researched biography of a fascinating fighter adds a new name to rank alongside Great Britain s most heroic warriors Argunners The Dambusters is one of my absolute favourite stories from WWII and this bio of Cochrane tells the story of an extraordinary man Brilliant Books Monthly Herbs František Starý,Václav Jirásek,1975 SeaLion writing about nature during an ecological crisis Using a range of international examples with a focus on late twentieth and early twenty first century writing from Britain and the US Dominic Head argues that nature writing contains formal effects which encapsulate our current ecological dilemma and offer a fresh resource for critical thinking The environmental crisis has injected a fresh urgency into nature writing along with a new piquancy for those readers seeking solace in the nonhuman or for those looking to change their habits in the face of ecological catastrophe However behind this apparently strong match between the aims of nature writers and the desires of their readers there is also a shared mood of radical uncertainty and insecurity The treatment and construction of nature in contemporary imaginative prose reveals some significant paradoxes beneath its dominant moods moods which are usually earnest sometimes celebratory sometimes prophetic or cautionary It is in these paradoxical moments that the contemporary ecological crisis is formally encoded in a progressive development of ecological consciousness from the late 1950s onwards Nature prose fiction and nonfiction is now contemporaneous with a defining time of crisis while also being formally fashioned by that context This is a mode of writing that emerges in a world in crisis but which is also in some ways in crisis itself With chapters on remoteness exclusivity abundance and rarity this book marks a turning point in how literary criticism engages with nature writing
