Head-On (Gegen die Wand) Daniela Berghahn, 2019-07-25 When Head On Gegen die Wand 2004 won the Golden Bear at the Berlin International Film Festival it was hailed as a turning point for German cinema Not only was this unconventional love story the first German film in eighteen years to win the prestigious award but the success of writer director Fatih Akin was also celebrated as the revival of German auteur cinema Meanwhile Turkey claimed Akin as its own prodigal son and his film a victory for Turkish cinema Daniela Berghahn provides a detailed and entertaining account of the film's artistic inspirations its production history and the debates that surrounded it in the German and Turkish press Arguing that much of the media discourse on Turkish German identity politics detracted from Akin's remarkable artistic achievement Berghahn instead situates Head On in the critical contexts of global art cinema and transnational melodrama This comparative approach excavates new layers of meaning and offers highly original insights into Akin's landmark film A Collection of First Editions of the Works of Rudyard Kipling American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm), Solton Engel, 1930
