Ghetto In Flames Yitzhak Arad, Dance on the Razor's Edge Svenja Bethke,2021 Historians have mainly seen the ghettos established by the Nazis in German occupied Eastern Europe as spaces marked by brutality tyranny and the systematic murder of the Jewish population Drawing on examples from the Warsaw Lodz and Vilna ghettos Dance on the Razor s Edge explores how in fact highly improvised legal spheres emerged in these coerced and heterogeneous ghetto communities Looking at sources from multiple archives and countries Svenja Bethke investigates how the Jewish Councils set up on German orders and composed of ghetto inhabitants formulated new definitions of criminal offenses and established legal institutions on their own initiative as a desperate attempt to ensure the survival of the ghetto communities Bethke explores how people under these circumstances tried to make sense of everyday lives that had been turned upside down bringing with them pre war notions of justice and morality and she considers the extent to which this rupture led to new judgments on human behaviour In doing so Bethke aims to understand how people attempted to use their very limited scope for action in order to survive Set against the background of a Holocaust historiography that often still seeks for clear categories of good and bad behaviours Dance on the Razor s Edge calls for a new understanding of the ghettos as complex communities in an unprecedented emergency situation The Holocaust in the Soviet Union Yitzhak Arad,2020-05-27
