

Chapter 2 Study Guide

Key Definitions:

Class: "the group of individuals who are in the same stage of life (e.g. children, teenagers, young adults) and the associated development (e.g. Piaget's 'concrete' and 'abstract' operations)"

Major Points, highlighted

Describe three main points regarding how height and attentional level and the play of the child, include the concepts and the level of thought, give definitions (e.g. "the child's level of attention to the world is not usually the greatest one, a teacher's thought about this level, but the child's attention is often higher than can be expected, by getting things going in the play")

Explain how the child's attention is the different aspect of attention. The child's attention is not just about the child's own interests, but also the child's own interests. The child's attention is not just about the child's own interests, but also the child's own interests, and what the child's attention is about.
