Resources in Education ,1990 Risk, Resilience, and Recovery Across Global Education Systems Louis

Volante,Kristof De Witte,Orazio Giancola,Luca Salmieri,Don A. Klinger,2026-01-22 This book provides a critical review of the long term effectiveness of education and social protection policies enacted by G10 countries in response to the global pandemic The COVID 19 pandemic caused the most significant disruption to education systems since the devastation of World War II Successive waves and variants of the coronavirus resulted in school closures and spurred a range of policy interventions across national education systems to combat both the cognitive i e achievement in reading mathematics and science and non cognitive socioemotional development mental and physical health impacts on student achievement and wellbeing This book aims to evaluate the long term efficacy of such interventions drawing on an analysis of a cross section of nine industrialized countries the United Kingdom France Germany Italy Sweden Netherlands Belgium Canada and Japan It further offers cross national insights for policymakers and discusses the critical importance of broader notions of academic resilience in a post pandemic world Ultimately this volume aims to identify national policies that have helped to buffer students from the long term challenges associated with the aftermath of the pandemic A timely and important text it will be of interest to researchers and policymakers in education policy pandemic response impact evaluation and student mental health

Evaluating Achievement of Senior High School Students in Canada Lenora Perry Fagan,Dana Spurrell,1995

In Canada today there is a clear move toward a more outcomes based education system This report examines the state of high school student assessment and reviews standards and accountability strategies It reports on the policies programs and initiatives in all provincial ministries or departments of education and a sample of school boards across the country Data were derived from a telephone survey of departmental ministerial representatives from all 10 provinces and the 2 territories and from a questionnaire that was mailed to 279 school boards A total of 140 boards responded a 50 percent response rate Data show that both boards and ministries are putting more emphasis on the development of comprehensive policies to cover all aspects of student evaluation There is some movement away from relying on paper and pencil testing as the sole means of evaluation the use of more authentic performance based approaches and a greater variety of assessment techniques are being promoted Some of the best practices in high school evaluation involve use of a broad range of assessment methods introduction of or improvements to provincial examinations greater use of summative and formative evaluations greater emphasis on modifying evaluation for special needs students use of performance based assessment and more reporting to parents and the public Thirteen tables are included Appendices contain copies of the two questionnaires and selected school board material Contains 19 references LMI Special Reports on Educational Subjects Great Britain.
