Tonight was the night she had been waiting for. Princess Penelope was head over heels for Prince Patrick and she had finally persuaded her father to allow her to attend the annual royal ball. She could hardly wait. Upon hearing the news, Penelope had sprinted like a cheetah all the way down to the royal dress shop to pick out the perfect dress. As she searched through the racks, each dress seemed to shudder with excitement, waiting to be chosen. Glancing around, Penelope's eyes landed on the most beautiful dress ever made. The dress was a sparkling ruby as it reflected light from every angle. Penelope thought the dress must be the color of Dorothy's slippers. Trying on the dress, Penelope knew it was meant to be worn by her. Now at the ball, her dress swished as she passed the prince. When she turned around, she found his eyes fixed on hers like laser beams.

College Composition Raymond Woodbury Pence, 1929 This text for college freshmen is based upon a number of strongly held beliefs 1 A book for college freshmen should aim at respectable English for the ordinary purpose of life not authorship 2 During the freshmen year the forming of correct language habits is by far the most important thing 3 The teacher should give the student very early a clear cut notion as to what constitutes criticism 4 As the course continues the student should do more and more revising before submitting a theme to the teacher's criticism 5 The student's time is precious They should be given only those writing tasks that serve either to establish good habits or that open them up to new knowledge of English composition 6 The teacher's time is precious An instructor should not be expected to spend it on a theme that the student has not put into the best condition of which they are capable 7 It is best to begin with a course with freshmen slowly even in an elementary manner with something that is easily within their comprehension
