Jezebel Loves Candy Melissa Noël, 2014-11-19 When four average teenagers Kris Charity Duncan and Ian are invited out on a Friday night in June they think it's just another stupid party The new girl the punk the snob and the nice guy don't expect anything particularly exciting to happen so they are surprised when they find themselves over the course of three days unceremoniously brought together by both chance and an unerring kick to the family jewels As the weekend passes in a whirlwind of crazy the four of them must navigate around a girl who has seen way too many bad villain movies spying siblings sickening merry go rounds overprotective parents July First suspicious private investigators and a potentially homicidal five year old kid But each of four is more than a single label and perhaps just perhaps they will find out along the way that they have more in common than they thought

Lucy-Belle Mariah Argüello, 2019-04-25 I am rejuvenating from Summer break Ready to get the school year started Knowing that my year will have its struggles That's my job To help structure and teach the lives have headstrong ill mannered and ill natured kids I am not realizing at that moment that my struggles were going to be with the adults My coworkers The people I am supposed to count on My team I realize that adults can be worse than kids I never imagined getting bullied at work Especially from grown adults I thought we were a team We are supposed to support one another not tear each other down We work at a school for troubled kids but yet the trouble coming from the adult minds We are supposed to be examples role models for these young children Who are mentally still growing However we are teaching them to lie hurt one another and do whatever it takes to bring your peers down So you can get ahead Our kids are not dumb They know what's going on they see it They are smarter than you think Bullying does not just happen in your young life It can happen to anyone at any time So many people get bullied at their place of work Sometimes the victim has nowhere else to turn but to turn to social media When you so caught up in the torment that you can't think right Your brain is on fire From all the suffering confusion questions and sadness That when you're in the crossfire you can't think clearly To stand up for yourself When you finally do stand up for yourself You are in tears shaky anxious terrified and have so many thoughts flashing through your fried brain Your higher up does not agree with you He agrees with the bullies who are clear minded Who are the master manipulators Who have their thoughts together I had to walk through the crossfires this year the fire of feeling mentally alone not wanting to go to the job I once loved so much feeling a heavy weight on my shoulder not being able to escape reality The reality of my life The truth of getting bullied not knowing where my life will be in a month from now The ups and downs I have to face of my everyday life Questions I have to ask The questions are will I escape the torment Will I be a survivor Or will I end up giving up on myself Will the bullies once again get away with murder Will the truth prevail

Women, Consumption and Paradox Timothy de Waal Malefyt, Maryann McCabe, 2020-04-23 Women are the world's most powerful consumers yet they are largely marketed to erroneously through misconceptions and patriarchal views that distort the reality of women's lives, bodies and work. This book examines the contradictions and mismatches between women's everyday experiences and market representations. It considers how women themselves exhibit paradoxical behaviour in both resisting and supporting conflicting messages. The volume emphasizes paradox as a form of agency and negotiation through which women develop dialogical meanings. The contributions highlight the ways in which women transform inconsistencies and contradictions in advertising and marketing, global consumption practices and material consumption into positive practices for living. The rich range of ethnographic accounts drawn from countries including the United States, Brazil, Mexico, Denmark, Japan and China provide readers with a valuable perspective on consumer behaviour.

All I Want Is Loving You Steve Bergsman, 2023-10-30 In All I Want Is Loving You Popular Female Singers of the 1950s author Steve Bergsman focuses on the white female artists of the 1950s, a time that predated the chart-topping girl groups of the early 1960s. These popular performers, many of whom graduated out of the big bands of the 1940s, impacted popular music in a huge way. As the last bastion of traditional pop and the last sirens of swing, they undeniably shined in the spotlight. Yet these singers' fame dimmed relatively quickly with the advent of rock n roll. A fortunate few like Doris Day, Patti Page, Peggy Lee and Debbie Reynolds experienced some of their biggest hits in the late 1950s and Eydie Gormé broke out in the 1960s. The luckiest, including Dinah Shore and Rosemary Clooney, ventured to television with varying degrees of success. Others would become major attractions at nightclubs in Las Vegas or like Teresa Brewer shift into the jazz world. Though the moment did not last, these performers were best-selling singers, darlings of the disc jockeys and the frenetic heartbeat of fan clubs during their heyday. In a companion volume, Bergsman has written the history of African American women singers of the same era. These Black musicians transitioned more easily as a new form of music, rock n roll, skyrocketed in popularity. In both books, Bergsman reintroduces readers to these talented singers, offering a thorough look at their work and turning up the volume on their legacy.
