Forward Bible Study Guide Dr. David Jeremiah, 2021-01-26 In this six session video Bible study DVD digital downloads sold separately bestselling author Dr David Jeremiah reminds us that the Christian life is to be lived looking forward and with our eyes fixed on the race in front of us not looking back over at our shoulder at the other runners or the past In the Bible the apostle said as much when he wrote Not that I have already attained or am already perfected but I press on that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me Brethren I do not count myself to have apprehended but one thing I do forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus Philippians 3:12-14 NKJV Dr Jeremiah draws on this key verse to show that while it is good at times to look back we need to make sure that we don't go back and allow the past to dictate our future We need to celebrate our good memories but also celebrate our bad memories with finality thanking God for the lessons that He has taught us through the experience and committing to use those lessons to make positive changes in our lives We then need to allow our past memories to cultivate our dreams boldly stepping into the mission God has for us and allowing Him to continually transform us to be more like Christ Now is the time to step past our comfort and our failure Now is the time to move forward in following God Designed for use with the Forward Video Study available on DVD or streaming video sold separately

Matthew Dr. David Jeremiah, 2019-06-18 Jesus is the eternal King Follow Dr Jeremiah through the gospel of Matthew in a chapter by chapter study that will help you understand what it meant to the people at the time it was written and what it means to Christians today At first glance it seems surprising that Jesus would call a man like Matthew to become one of His disciples As a small time tax collector Matthew would have been despised by the Jewish people who viewed those in the profession as traitors to Rome But the fact that Matthew was educated literate and also familiar with Jewish law and customs made him the ideal candidate to not only accompany Jesus during His earthly ministry but also record all that he witnessed The result is the Gospel we have today Matthew shows how Jesus as the promised Messiah and eternal King is worthy of our hope and our complete devotion Each of this study s twelve lessons is clearly organized to include Getting Started An opening question to introduce you to the lesson Setting the Stage A short reflection to explain the context of the study Exploring the Text The Scripture reading for the lesson with related study questions Reviewing the Story Questions to help you identify key points in the reading Applying the Message Questions to help you apply the key ideas to their lives Reflecting on the Meaning A closing reflection on the key teachings in the lesson

Mark Dr. David Jeremiah, 2019-06-18 Jesus is always at work and active Follow Dr Jeremiah through the gospel of Mark in a chapter by chapter study that will help you understand what it meant to the people at the time it was written and what it means to Christians today Mark s gospel was likely the first written record of the life of Jesus Christ and it s full of energy and action The word immediately appears so often in the text that it is hard not to get caught up in the pace of the narrative as Jesus moves to establish his kingdom in a way that was completely unanticipated. However, Mark also begins his account with words from Isaiah the prophet, making it immediately clear that had the religious leaders of the time been paying attention, they might have been a little more prepared for the arrival of the Messiah and for everything that happened next. Each of this study's twelve lessons is clearly organized to include: Getting Started: An opening question to introduce you to the lesson; Setting the Stage: A short reflection to explain the context of the study; Exploring the Text: The Scripture reading for the lesson with related study questions; Reviewing the Story: Questions to help you identify key points in the reading; Applying the Message: Questions to help you apply the key ideas to their lives; Reflecting on the Meaning: A closing reflection on the key teachings in the lesson.
