Bobo Lo

Memorandum Of Geography Paper March 2013:

Race and Place Deirdre Mayer Dougherty,2025-08-12 Race and Place considers the everyday experiences of community members throughout the process of school desegregation and how race place and truth came to matter in this process in Prince George s County Maryland from 1945 through 1973 The book is organized around several successive policies that emerged in this time school equalization school choice neighborhood schools school construction school closure busing for racial integration and school discipline Dougherty shows how these policies contained and reinforced assumptions about place and created new racial truths about people and schooling

Russia and the New World Disorder Bobo Lo,2015-08-17 The Russian annexation of Crimea was one of the great strategic shocks of the past twenty five years For many in the West Moscow s actions in early 2014 marked the end of illusions about cooperation and the return to geopolitical and ideological confrontation Russia for so long a peripheral presence had become the central actor in a new global drama In this groundbreaking book renowned scholar Bobo Lo analyzes the broader context of the crisis by examining the interplay between Russian foreign policy and an increasingly anarchic international environment He argues that Moscow s approach to regional and global affairs reflects the tension between two very different worlds the perceptual and the actual The Kremlin highlights the decline of the West a resurgent Russia and the emergence of a new multipolar order But this idealized view is contradicted by a world disorder that challenges core assumptions about the dominance of great powers and the utility of military might Its lesson is that only those states that embrace change will prosper in the twenty first century A Russia able to redefine itself as a modern power would exert a critical influence in many areas of international politics But a Russia that rests on an outdated sense of entitlement may end up instead as one of the principal casualties of global transformation

Cash Not Care Mo Stewart,2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government

Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower,2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators

The Contest for the Indian Ocean Darshana M Baruah,2024-08-27 A major new examination of the Indian Ocean revealing how the region has become a hotly contested geopolitical flashpoint Throughout history the Indian Ocean has been an essential space for trade commerce and culture Every European power has sought to dominate it Now after a lull in the postwar period control of major shipping routes has once again become a critical aspect of every rising state s ambition to be a global power Darshana M Baruah shows how governments from Washington DC to Nairobi and Canberra are expanding their interests in the region The Indian Ocean is resource rich strategically placed and home to over two billion people Island nations have become more important than ever with Madagascar forming ties with Russia and the Comoros with Saudi Arabia It is also through the region that China engages with Africa and the Middle East This is a compelling account of the geopolitical significance of the Indian Ocean showing how the region has taken centre stage in a new global contest

Youth Migration and the Politics of Wellbeing Elaine Chase,Jennifer Allsopp,2020-11-18 This book examines the factors affecting the health and wellbeing of young people as they transition to adulthood under the shadow of migration control Drawing on unique longitudinal data it illuminates how they conceptualize wellbeing for themselves and others in contexts of prolonged and politically induced uncertainty The authors offer an in depth analysis of the experiences of over one hundred unaccompanied young migrants primarily from Afghanistan Albania and Eritrea They show the lengths these young people will go to in pursuit of safety security and the futures they aspire to Interdisciplinary in nature the book champions a new political economy analysis of wellbeing in the context of migration and demonstrates the urgent need for policy reform

Framing Civic Engagement, Political Participation and Active Citizenship in Europe Cristiano Bee,Roberta Guerrina,2017-12-22 This book evaluates the role that civic engagement political participation and active citizenship can play in promoting the establishment of a European polity The chapters included here examine how the practice of active citizenship is managed and constructed in the context of a European drive to increase civic engagement and political participation in three member states Portugal Italy and the UK and one accession country Turkey Looking at both processes and policies promoting active citizenship at the European and national levels this book uncovers current discourses as well as political priorities and values that surround the activities of non governmental organizations NGOs Of particular interest are debates about the nature and level of civic and political participation and engagement of marginal groups women youths migrants and minorities as they are particularly vulnerable to social exclusion The book focuses on the interaction between institutions and civil society actors addressing a number of questions related to their reciprocal role in influencing shaping criticising or disregarding certain political priorities This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Civil Society Covert Regime Change Lindsey A. O'Rourke,2018-12-15 Lindsey A O Rourke is Assistant Professor of Political Science at Boston College Her research focuses on regime change international security and US foreign policy

The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Human Settlements Programme,2013 Nairobi UN Habitat c2014 9789211325980 The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications,2015-09-10 The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic economic technological environmental urban and socio political transitions Africa s economic performance is promising with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets Despite significant overall growth the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad based human development and prosperity for all This report therefore argues for a bold re imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability based on a thorough review of all available options That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change Documents Communicated to the Senate and House of Representatives ,1895 Annual Report of the Board of State Auditors for the State of Michigan for the Year ... Michigan.
