

Writing Prompt

Historical Change in Family Relationships

Over the past century, many historians think we've witnessed a shift in the way that we relate to one another. Some think that we are becoming more individual, self-focused, and self-interested, and therefore, more selfish. Others believe that we've become more caring, more compassionate, and more generous. Some think that we've become more self-centered, more self-interested, and more selfish. Others think that we've become more caring, more compassionate, and more generous. Some think that we've become more self-centered, more self-interested, and more selfish. Others think that we've become more caring, more compassionate, and more generous.

Are relationships in general becoming more self-centered, more selfish, and more self-interested? Or are they becoming more caring, more compassionate, and more generous? Write an essay in which you analyze the evidence and explain your position. Be sure to address the complexity of the issue and to support your position with relevant evidence and analysis.
