

Higher Level (HL) Essay

In his essays, what narrative and language structures does George Monbiot use to challenge power to bring about 'positive' change and a 'better' world?

The journalist and political activist, George Monbiot, appeared at the TED Summit in Edinburgh in July 2019. In his talk (The New Political Story That Could Change Everything), Monbiot claimed that humans are “creatures of narrative”, and he argued that there is an urgent need to construct “a new story with which to replace neoliberalism”. The story Monbiot suggests is a version of an ancient narrative that he refers to as “the restoration story”. According to Monbiot, the actual stories contained within the narrative structure may vary. Indeed, and crucially, competing stories can, and do, exist within an identical restoration narrative framework. The overarching narrative suggests that societal disorder can be displaced by a brave hero figure that challenges traditional authority and fights against the odds to restore societal harmony. In Monbiot’s essays, the brave hero figure is different in each particular story he tells, but traditional authority tends to consist of those social, economic, and political elites that create and maintain social inequality at considerable cost to our planet’s physical environment. It is interesting, therefore, to observe how Monbiot’s own essays, published in The Guardian newspaper, are typically structured around the restoration narrative. This essay considers the ways Monbiot uses and exploits this narrative to tell a variety of stories, each of which champions the oppressed and marginalized, and vilifies greedy elites to tell a story that, in every instance, argues for ‘positive’ change in pursuit of a ‘better’ world.

In reading Monbiot’s essays, it is important to recognize that he is not an impartial, disinterested journalist. He is, by his own admission, a biased and committed journalist who sees the role of journalism as being “to hold power to account” (Monbiot, 2011). Monbiot has been influenced by another writer-cum-activist, George Marshall, who asserts that the restoration narrative is predominant across arguments

Comment [1]: Essays do not need to emerge from questions. However, considerations like the above stage of providing immediate direction a red, well focus. Needs to (and sometimes) to disrupt the question to be addressed in the essay.

David Molyneux 202400118218

Comment [2]: An academic essay needs a thesis. This thesis needs to be reasonably well and is a fact enough. Note that it refers to the in the question, and this is a good first “trying to do” an effective strategy in academic writing. There is an opportunity to provide further “supporting” what else will the essay argue? However, the first paragraph is a fairly good long, and a short essay of 2000 words can only so many words to write. Needs to be a strong essay that will read with a critical eye. However, when essays begin to reach their word limit, it is a belief that they cannot be added to. To add something, something has to be omitted, so ideas need to be (logically) compressed.
