Page 8

While Tita was singing and waving her wet hand in time, showering drops of water down on the griddle so they would "dance," Rosaura was cowering in the corner, stunned by the display. Gertrudis, on the other hand, found this game enticing, and she threw herself into it with the enthusiasm she always showed where rhythm, movement, or music were involved. Then Rosaura tried to join them..... The momentum carried Rosaura's hands onto it.

(Comments: You may want to shorten up the passage to which you are responding. Use three ellipses [periods] to delete information within a sentence. Use four ellipses to leave out information within a paragraph but across one or more sentence boundaries.)

Sample Response 1

I remember doing this as a child. My sister and I said the water was ice-skating. I tried to do it the other day but it didn't work.

(Comments: This is related to the topic, but it is too short. It lacks depth of thought and development. To me this entry looks a little confused, lazy or rushed. This response would receive about 2 or 3 points.)

Sample Response 2

Tita was showing her sisters how to have some fun dropping water onto a hot cooking surface to see the water drops float across the surface. Gertrudis enjoyed this activity because they did it while dancing. Rosaura was afraid to try it, so when Tita tried to force her, Rosaura burned her hands. I think Tita and Rosaura are very different people and will not get along very well.

Grand Conversations, Thoughtful Responses Faye Brownlie, 2019-11-29 Grand Conversations Thoughtful Responses is built upon the premise that all students can become active independent thoughtful readers. The structures and strategies in this book are proven to help students develop confidence and competence in their reading. Student engagement with text soars through participation in grand conversations with peers and reflecting on reading with thoughtful written responses. This unique approach includes student choice in books, students reading at their own pace, thus creating flexible groups, literature circles where students discuss the shared text they are reading, strategies for teaching written response strategies, for co-creating assessment criteria, additional activities to develop and deepen comprehension, book lists. This new edition has been expanded to include examples and book lists for grades K to 12.

Dialogue Journal Communication Jana Staton, 1988. The thesis of this volume is that writing done by students who control their own topics who have genuine purposes for writing and have a real known audience is quite different and valuable in its own right. It forms a rich source of information about how young students think, manage their social interactions, and use language with competence to get things done. By selecting dialogue journal writing as a corpus for analysis, it is possible to observe children's communicative competence in using written language purposefully, apart from their ability to master a particular form of writing. The central argument is that dialogue journal communication represents a kind of personal literacy, prior to and more comprehensive than the particular literacies emphasized and assessed in schools. The contents include a practitioner's view of the practice itself and a summary of the research study methods developed to analyze interactive written conversations.
