Engaging Curriculum Bill Green, 2017-09-18 Explicitly linking curriculum inquiry to English education via recurring themes of representation democracy and knowledge this book is a call for both researchers and practitioners to engage with curriculum explicitly and deliberately as both a concept and a question. The approach is broadly conceptual and constitutes an exercise in theoretical and philosophical inquiry. While deeply informed by North American debates and developments, this book offers a distinctive counterpoint and a strategically ex-centric perspective being equally informed by the curriculum scene in Australia as well as the UK and elsewhere. Divided into two sections, this book first addresses matters of general curriculum inquiry while the second turns more specifically to English teaching and to associated questions of language literacy and literature in L1 education. Green brings the two together through a critical examination of the Australian national curriculum especially in its implications and challenges for English teaching and with due regard for the project of transnational curriculum inquiry.

Knowledge-building Karl Maton, Susan Hood, Suellen Shay, 2015-10-08. Education and knowledge have never been more important to society yet research is segmented by approach, methodology or topic. Legitimation Code Theory or LCT extends and integrates insights from Pierre Bourdieu and Basil Bernstein to offer a framework for research and practice that overcomes segmentalism. This book shows how LCT can be used to build knowledge about education and society. Comprising original papers by an international and multidisciplinary group of scholars, Knowledge building offers the first primer in this fast-growing approach. Through case studies of major research projects, Part I provides practical insights into how LCT can be used to build knowledge by enabling dialogue between theory and data in qualitative research, bringing together quantitative and qualitative methodologies in mixed methods research relating theory and practice in praxis, conducting interdisciplinary studies with systemic functional linguistics. Part II offers a series of studies of pressing issues facing knowledge building in education and beyond encompassing diverse subject areas including physics, English, cultural studies, music and design, educational sites, schooling, vocational education and higher education, practices of research, curriculum, pedagogy and assessment both education and informal learning contexts such as museums and masonic lodges. Carefully sequenced and interrelated, these chapters form a coherent collection that gives a unique insight into one of the most thought-provoking and innovative ways of building knowledge about knowledge building in education and society to have emerged this century. This book is essential reading for all serious students and scholars of education, sociology and linguistics.

English (Advanced) Paper 2, 2014. English advanced HSC workbook. A Holistic Home-School-Community Model for Learning Chinese Language Tse Shek Kam, Laing Victor, 2021-09-28. This book contains the compilation of studies from a 5-year project aimed at improving the Chinese teaching and learning as a second language for non-Chinese speaking preschoolers in Hong Kong. In this project, a home school community model was used in an attempt to address the teaching and learning of Chinese for non Chinese speaking preschoolers moving from a traditional school centred teaching approach to a holistic approach This allows them to learn in the same space and environment on the same topics creating an inclusive classroom that does not compromise the teaching and learning of Chinese for both local and non Chinese speaking preschoolers Issues such as medium of instruction language progression silent period multicultural teaching assistants multilingual learning facilitators parent changes and effective teaching are studied and discussed Assessment and Evaluation in Schooling Bill Hannan,1985 Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
