Mental Maps Janne Holmén, Norbert Götz, 2021-11-28 The concept of mental maps is used in several disciplines including geography psychology history linguistics economics anthropology political science and computer game design However until now there has been little communication between these disciplines and methodological schools involved in mental mapping Mental Maps Geographical and Historical Perspectives addresses this situation by bringing together scholars from some of the related fields Ute Schneider examines the development of German geographer Heinrich Schiffers mental maps using his books on Africa from the 1930s to the 1970s Efrat Ben Ze'ev and Chlo Yvroux investigate conceptions of Israel and Palestine particularly the West Bank held by French and Israeli students By superimposing large numbers of sketch maps Clarisse Didelon Loiseau Sophie de Ruffray and Nicolas Lambert identify soft and hard macro regions on the mental maps of geography students across the world Janne Holm n investigates whether the Baltic and the Mediterranean Seas are seen as links or divisions between the countries that line their shores according to the mental maps of high school seniors Similarly Dario Musolino maps regional preferences of Italian entrepreneurs Finally Lars Erik Edlund offers an essayistic account of mental mapping based on memories of maps in his own family This edited volume book uses printed maps survey data and hand drawn maps as sources contributing to the study of human perception of space from the perspectives of different disciplines The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Cultural Geography

Civic Education in the Elementary Grades Dana Mitra, Stephanie C. Serriere, 2015-10-16 Based on a 5 year study of an elementary school with socioeconomic diversity the authors provide an active model of civic engagement organized into three settings Classroom School and Community Each chapter includes an overview of what research has demonstrated about civic engagement in that particular space offers detailed descriptions of activities and closes with lessons for practice This case study demonstrates how putting civics at the center of the curriculum gives purpose and motivation to traditional academic learning including tested subjects such as reading writing and mathematics As former elementary school teachers the authors focus on what is possible in schools rather than a romantic vision of what schools could be Classroom teachers school principals community members and teacher educators can use this resource to foster a deeper richer understanding of what is entailed in civic life

GIScience Teaching and Learning Perspectives Shivanand Balram, James Boxall, 2019-01-31 This volume uniquely links educational theories and the practice of GIScience in higher education contexts to guide classroom practice present effective practical implementations from peers and provide resources and strategies for effective teaching methods The book offers a comprehensive exploration of GIScience education including current trends and future educational needs in GIScience and will act as a resource to prepare learners for a world that demands more intensive investment in present day education and technological literacy Additionally the indirect benefit of merging the fragmented literature on GIScience literacy will provide a basis to examine common techniques and enable a new wave of research more rooted in learning theories In ten chapters the book is designed to attract an audience from geographic information systems science geomatics spatial information science cartography information technology and educational technology as focus disciplines Teaching and Learning Through the Holocaust Anthony Pellegrino, Jeffrey Parker, 2022-12-16 This book serves as a critical resource for educators across various roles and contexts who are interested in Holocaust education that is both historically sound and practically relevant As a collection it pulls together a diverse group of scholars to share their research and experiences The volume endeavors to address topics including the nature and purpose of Holocaust education how our understanding of the Holocaust has changed and resources we can use with learners These themes are consistent across the chapters making for a comprehensive exploration of learning through the Holocaust today and in the future Pandemics and natural disasters as reflected in history teaching Council of Europe, 2023-03-01 Covid 19 disastrous series of earthquakes in Turkey and Syria How well prepared are young people to understand such catastrophic events and their impact upon societies Since the beginning of recorded human history pandemics and natural disasters have highly impacted the historical narratives of mankind Each time they remind humans how fragile they are and how limited their knowledge is Despite their impact these events are given little attention in history education The first thematic report of the Observatory on History Teaching in Europe OHTE analyses how pandemics and natural disasters are taught across different levels of education It gives a detailed overview of the teaching of the two topics in OHTE's 16 member states along with a cross country analysis combining information provided by educational authorities and by history teachers themselves The report refers to important areas of concern such as the inclusion of pandemics and natural disasters in history curricula teachers pedagogical decisions about their teaching multiperspectival approaches but also the use of scapegoating during these times of crises The observatory's mission is to provide a clear picture of the state of history teaching in Europe Within the countries that are party to the observatory this is done through OHTE reports on the state of history teaching and thematic reports which explore particular areas of interest and how they are handled in history lessons The observatory's vision is embodied by its motto Teaching history grounding democracy In practice this means that it promotes quality history education in order to improve the understanding of democratic culture among young people The Observatory on History Teaching in Europe is a Council of Europe enlarged partial agreement

Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy, 2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies Education at a Glance 2023 Sources, Methodologies and Technical Notes OECD,2023-09-12 This publication provides additional reference material for Education at a Glance 2023 the authoritative source for data on the state of education around the world It provides guidance on the data and methodology used to calculate each indicator It also contains references to the sources and specific notes for each country Stimulating Non-Fiction Writing! Emma Hughes-Evans,Simon Brownhill,2019-01-25 Stimulating Non Fiction Writing Inspiring Children Aged 7 11 offers innovative and exciting ways to engage children in non fiction writing giving professionals the confidence and practical advice that they need to support children in producing quality non fiction texts in the classroom Packed full of interesting ideas resource suggestions and practical activities the book explores the various ways professionals can purposefully encourage child authors to develop their non fiction writing skills Tried and tested resources Gold star tips and practical suggestions are underpinned by research informed teaching strategies and academic information to strengthen professional practice associated with the teaching of non fiction writing By taking a stimulating approach to each text type and linking activities to known texts and stimuli the book offers differentiated advice for working with children in Lower and Upper Key stage 2 Chapters consider text types that include Instructions Persuasive texts Non chronological reports Correspondence texts Discussion texts This new text is the perfect guide for inspiring children aged 7 11 in the classroom and will energise and enrich classroom provision and practice by being an essential resource for teachers and students on teacher training courses Colorado School Laws Colorado,2019

Malaysian Media Studies: Integrating Perspectives (UM Press) Azizah Hamzah,Amira Firdaus,2016 This edited volume revisits developments in the field of media education and media studies at a time when society is experiencing a ubiquitous networked digital media environment Rapid advances in media and communication technologies and the accompanying developments in social cultural political and economic realms pose unexpected challenges to the curricula of long established media and communication schools As opposed to rigidly structured nation based mass media systems of the past century the new global media sphere celebrates the breaking down of borders whether spatial cultural or social Today in the second half of the second decade of the 21st century this problem translates into what and how to teach students of media who in all likelihood are more adept media consumers and producers than their teachers In a region where educational institutions and educators don t transform as fast as media technologies do there is a need to problematize and to reflect upon the situation This edited volume examines critical issues related to media studies at local institutions of higher learning and includes a sampling of research charting new directions in local media scholarship Contributions to this edited volume reflect the shared concerns of media educators and researchers in Malaysia and two neighboring countries Indonesia and Thailand Three main themes underscore this volume reflecting their importance to the evolution of media education and to a certain extent research as well Historical development of media education and training Current developments and future trajectories of media education in a globalized digital media environment Analysis of media and society Budget Request Colorado Historical Society,2015 South African national bibliography ,1999 Classified list with author and title index Report of the Government of the District of Columbia District of Columbia. Board of Commissioners,1916 TASKs for Democracy Josef Huber (Educator),Pascale Mompoin-Gaillard,Ildikó Lázár,2015 This publication contains a rationale for the necessity to focus on competences for democracy in all areas of education an explanation of what transversal attitudes skills and knowledge mean and why they are important for and should be taken on board by all education professionals A list of components forms the heart of the publication describing the core attitudes skills and knowledge which need to be developed by every individual in order to be able to live in and to contribute to the development and maintenance of democratic societies in their full diversity The collection of learning and re learning activities will help practitioners to promote the development of these components in their day to day educational practice Report of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia District of Columbia.
