Green Of Zimbabwe O Level:

Zimbabwe's New Diaspora JoAnn McGregor, Ranka Primorac, 2010-06-01 Zimbabwe's crisis since 2000 has produced a dramatic global scattering of people. This volume investigates this enforced dispersal and the processes shaping the emergence of a new diaspora of Zimbabweans abroad, focusing on the most important concentrations in South Africa and in Britain. Not only is this the first book on the diasporic connections created through Zimbabwe's multifaceted crisis, but it also offers an innovative combination of research on the political, economic, cultural, and legal dimensions of movement across borders and survival thereafter, with a discussion of shifting identities and cultural change. It highlights the ways in which new movements are connected to older flows and how displacements across physical borders are intimately linked to the reworking of conceptual borders in both sending and receiving states. The book is essential reading for researchers, students in migration, diaspora, and postcolonial literary studies. History Gr11 L/b, Zimbabwe Books in Print, 1993

The Birds of Africa: Volume VI, 2020-06-25 This is the sixth volume in the Birds of Africa series, covering the rich avifauna of the world's second largest continent. Universally recognised as by far the most authoritative work ever published on the subject, The Birds of Africa is a superb multi-contributor reference work with encyclopaedic species texts, stunning paintings of all species and numerous subspecies, hundreds of informative line drawings, detailed range maps, and extensive bibliographies. Each volume contains an Introduction that brings the reader up to date with the latest developments in African ornithology, including the evolution and biogeography of African birds. Diagnoses of the families and genera, often with superspecies maps, are followed by the comprehensive species accounts themselves. These include descriptions of range and status, field characters, voice, general habits, food, and breeding habits. Full bibliographies, acoustic references, and indexes complete this scholarly work of reference. This sixth volume in the series deals comprehensively with picathartes, babblers, long-tailed tits, tits, penduline tits, nuthatches, creepers, sunbirds, white eyes, sugarbirds, true shrikes, bush shrikes, bulbuls, helmet shrikes, orioles, drongos, crows, starlings, and oxpeckers. The editors and artists have worked closely with other authors, all acknowledged experts in their field, to produce a superb reference in which comprehensive texts on every species are complemented by accurate and detailed paintings and drawings of the birds themselves. Archives of Times Past Cynthia Kros, Geoffrey Blundell, Jan Boeyens, Sekibakiba Peter Lekgoathi, Amanda Esterhuysen, Grant McNulty, Rachel King, Hlonipha Mokoena, Lize Kriel, Fred Morton, Muchaparara Musemwa, Ndukuyakhe Ndlovu, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Himal Ramji, Justine Wintjes, 2022-02 Archives of Times Past explores particular sources of evidence on southern Africa's time before the colonial era. It gathers recent ideas about archives and archiving from scholars in southern Africa and elsewhere, focusing on the question: How do we know or think we know what happened in the times before European colonialism? The essays by well-known historians, archaeologists, and researchers engage these questions from a range of perspectives and in illuminating ways. Written from personal experience, they capture how these experts encountered their archives of knowledge beyond the communities In Killing for Conservation Rosaleen Duffy presents the search for a solution to the human versus wildlife conflict in Zimbabwe as a case study of wider issues in the realm of global environmental politics What are the economic consequences of a strict preservationist policy for local economies versus a more balanced approach to sustainable utilization Should the international community deprive developing countries of the right to use their natural resources for the economic benefit of their populations How can community development and wildlife preservation be welded together to serve the needs of both Duffy s keen analysis underlines the essentially political nature of conservation amid international rhetoric that presents it as an apolitical matter of saving animals
