

JANET FISH

I did a transcription of a still life by Janet Fish.

Janet Fish is an American contemporary painter who is particularly interested in the domestic and interior world of her work. She focuses on still life subjects, such as fruit, flowers, and objects on a table.

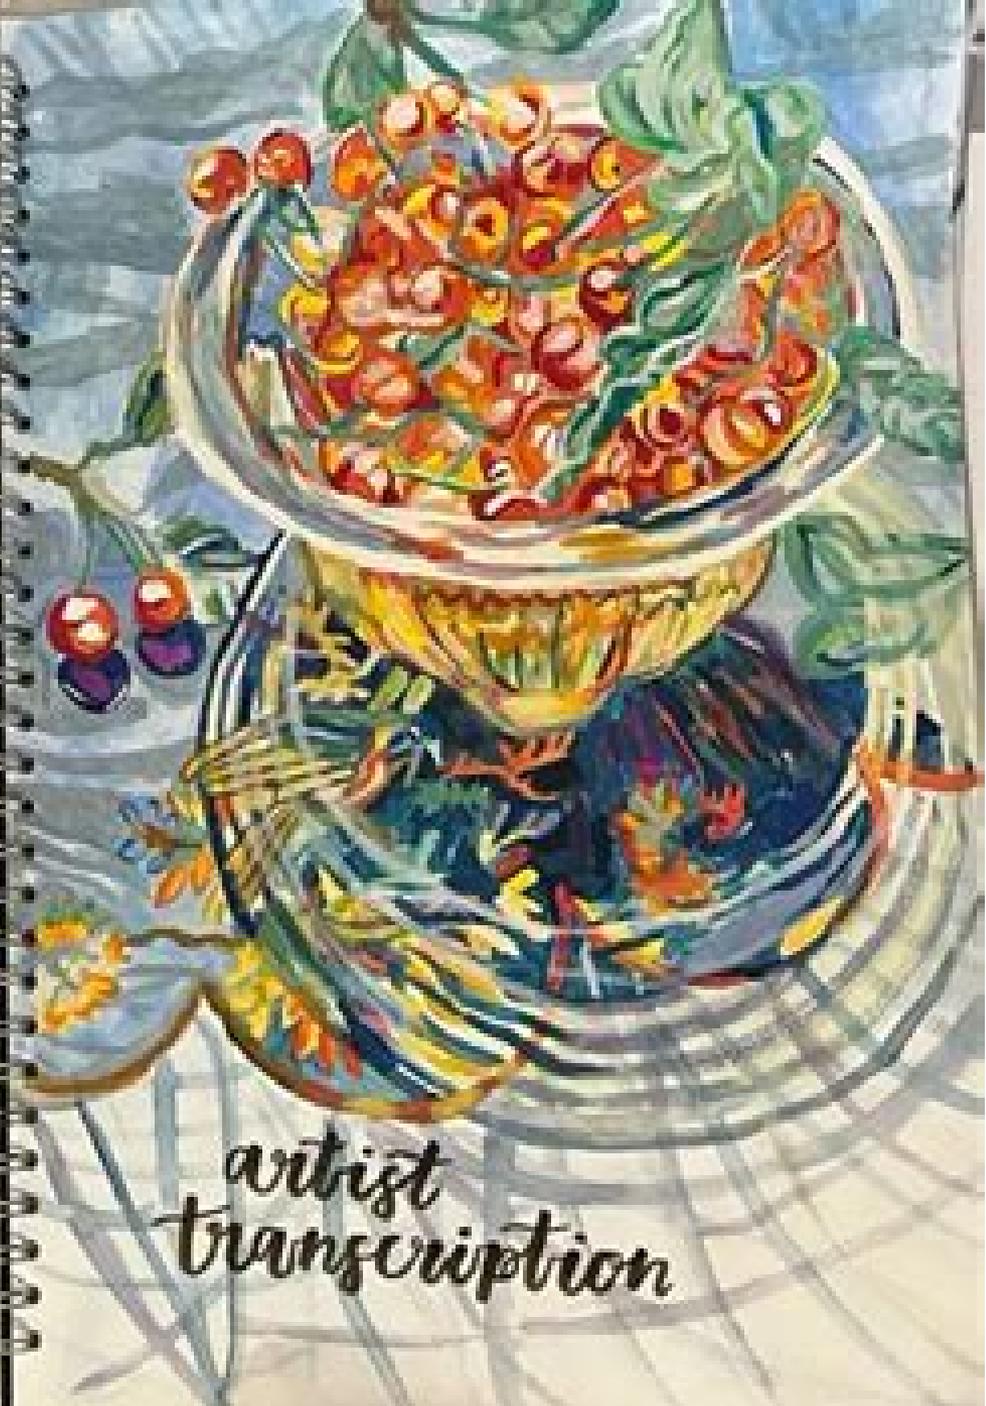

For this transcription, I used a palette with green, yellow, and red. I used a brush with a soft edge to create the fruit and leaves. I used a fine brush for the details of the vase and the table.

I used a palette with green, yellow, and red. I used a brush with a soft edge to create the fruit and leaves. I used a fine brush for the details of the vase and the table.

I think that the painting is very beautiful. I like the way she uses color and light. The composition is very balanced and the brushwork is very detailed. I think that the painting is a great example of still life painting.
