

Entrepreneurial Leadership: Personal Reflection

Topic: Business | Words: 3187 | Pages: 11

My learning experiences from this module have given me a greater understanding of the importance of innovation, social entrepreneurship, and entrepreneurial leadership in my professional practice. During my course work, I have explored the concept of entrepreneurship and studied different theories and models of social entrepreneurship, including the lean start-up approach, which majors on rapid innovation and iteration. Therefore, I have read different resources that have helped me understand and appreciate these concepts' importance in the modern business environment.

Moreover, I was able to determine various critical incidents from my practice demonstrating the importance of innovation and entrepreneurial leadership. For instance, I recently led a project which involved creating an innovative business model for a new product launch. I used the concepts I learned to develop an innovative and sustainable model. This project was a success and demonstrated the importance of innovation and entrepreneurial leadership in my practice. Thus, I took an online course on the importance of innovation and entrepreneurial leadership in the modern business environment.

Feeling

I feel empowered by the knowledge I have gained from this module, and I am excited to apply it to my professional practice. It is important to be proactive and creative in developing innovative solutions to business problems (Bussell & Forbes, 2002). I know the potential risks associated with innovation and the importance of taking measured risks when
