

Star came to America a broken and abused child. Would a family's love save her in more ways than one?

Star's story came to me in a dream a few years back, and after praying about it I realized I was given that dream for a reason, due to the sensitive subject matter this book took a lot of time and effort as well as emotional strain to write. I learned things I could not even imagine, but I knew the Lord wanted me to share this story...
