Grade Geography Paper2 November 2013:

Territorial Cohesion in Rural Europe Andrew Copus, Philomena de Lima, 2014-08-13 This book reflects on how the economies social characteristics ways of life and global relationships of rural areas of Europe have changed in recent years This reveals a need to refresh the concepts we use to understand measure and describe rural communities and their development potential This book argues that Europe has outgrown many of the stereotypes usually associated with it with substantial implications for European Rural Policy Rural structural change and its evolving geography are portrayed through regional typologies and the concept of the New Rural Economy Demographic change migration business networks and agricultural restructuring are each explored in greater detail Implications for equality and social exclusion and recent developments in the field of governance are also considered Despite being a subject of active debate interventions in the fields of rural and regional development have failed to adapt to changing realities and have become increasingly polarized This book argues that rural regional policy needs to evolve in order to address the current complex reality partially reformulating territorial or place based approaches and the New Rural Paradigm following a set of principles termed Rural Cohesion Policy

Chinese Migrants and Africa's Development Doctor Ben Lampert, Doctor May Tan-Mullins, Daphne Chang, Giles Mohan, 2014-06-12 China's recent stepping up of relations with Africa is one of the most significant developments on the African continent for decades For some it promises an end to Africa's dependent aid relationships as the Chinese bring expertise technology and a stronger business focus But for others it is no more than a new form of imperialism This book is the first to systematically study the motivations relationships and impact of this migration It focuses not just on the Chinese migrants but also on the perceptions of and linkages to their African hosts By studying this everyday interaction we get a much richer picture of whether this is South South cooperation as political leaders would have us believe or a more complex relationship that can both compromise and encourage African development

Sociology in Today's World Brian Furze, Cengage Learning Australia, Pauline Savy, 2014 Sociology in Today's World explores why sociology is important and relevant to everyday life It teaches students how to think sociologically not just what to think and shows how sociology can help us make sense of our lives It comprehensively covers key aspects and current issues in Australian and New Zealand society whilst emphasising the importance of diversity and a global perspective

Yojana, 2014 Unique Urbanity? Tara Brabazon, 2014-11-21 This book investigates small cities cities and towns that are not well known or internationally branded but are facing structural economic and social issues after the Global Financial Crisis They need to invent develop and manage new reasons for their existence The strengths and opportunities are often underplayed when compared to larger cities These small cities do not have the profile of New York London Tokyo or Cairo or second tier cities like San Francisco Manchester Osaka or Alexandria This book traces the current state of the creative industries literature after the GFC but with a specific focus The specific and worsening conditions in third tier cities are logged The social and economic challenges within these regions are great particularly with regard to health and health services education employment social mobility and physical activity This is not a study that merely diagnoses problems but raises strategies for third tier cities to create both a profile and growth The current research field is synthesized to reveal how cities are defined constituted developed and in many cases suffering decline There is an imperative to build relationships with other urban environments The book enters these under discussed locations and reveal the scarred layering of injustice signified by depopulation dis investment economic decline and a reduction in public services for health transportation and education while also developing specific and innovative models for improvement The vista summoned in Unique Urbanity is international with strong attention to trans local strategies that offer wide relevance currency and opportunities for policy makers While third tier cities are often hidden marginalized invisible or demeaned Unique Urbanity shows that innovation imagination and creativity can emerge in small places

Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury,2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies
