Interviewing and Interrogation

Interviewing

Objectives.

- To gather information from people who have, or may have, knowledge needed in the investigation.
- To elicit from the witness information actually perceived through one or more of the witness's five senses—sight, hearing, smell, taste, and touch.

Person to be interviewed must satisfy three requirements of being a witness.

- Presence, consciousness, and attentiveness to what was happening.

Qualifications of Interviewers and Interrogators

Effective interviewer or interrogator must:

- Be knowledgeable in the art and science of criminal investigation and know how to use psychology, salesmanship, and dramatics.
- Have a positive, firm approach, an ability to inspire confidence, and knowledge of a broad range of topics of general interest.
  - Help establish dominance or control in an interview.
- Maintain control of the interrogation without being openly domineering.
  - By being a good active listener and by being patient, persistent and persuasive.
- An ability to categorize the psychological and emotional traits being manifested by the suspect.
  - Helps the investigator react in a manner that increases the possibility of conducting a successful interrogation, for it is the job of the interrogator to make it easy for a suspect to confess.

Time, Place, and Setting of Interviews and Interrogation

Officers should identify individuals who may have knowledge of the event and whose information may contribute to the investigation.

- Identified witnesses should be separated from one another and isolated from other people who may be loitering in the area.

Witnesses should be interviewed as soon as practical while their memory is still fresh.

- This rule must be applied with discretion to take into account all circumstances.

Investigator must be fair but always be in command of the situation.

Privacy is of the utmost importance in conducting interviews.

- Distractions tend to have an adverse effect on the interview and its results.

The physical and emotional states of the witnesses are important factors to consider while conducting or determining whether to conduct an interview.
