day writing Workshop five: Has Routines The mini-lesson

materials needed:
Chart/Writing paper
Our Writers'
Workshop Chart

mini-lesson:

"You have been working so hard during our writing time. Today I want to teach you that we all have a job to do during writing time. This time, when we are all together on the carpet, is called the mini-lesson. It is really quick and it is when I want to teach you something about writing." Discuss with the students what you expect from them during the mini-lesson phase of Writers' Workshop. (ex: eyes on the teacher, listening ears, criss-cross applesauce, etc.) Then, you will explain what you will be doing during this time. Create an "Our Writers' Workshop" chart with the class. Today you will just work on filling in the mini-lesson section.

TRY IT OUT: "Now it is your turn to write. Today I want you to keep working your writing stamina (make a muscle with your arms). Does it have to be perfect? No, just do your best. Let's see if we can work hard for 8 minutes" (or just add 1 minute to yesterday's writing workshop). As you walk around the room continue to encourage students to tell their story. Guide them beyond just naming the pictures. Praise those who are showing strong writing stamina.

PROCEDURE CHECK: "Writers work on their writing stamina by working the whole time." At the end of the workshop chart their stamina so that they can see how long they were able to write.

SHARING: Select 2-3 students to share their writing in front of the class. These should be students who are able to tell their story. The audience's job is to listen quietly. The teacher will model "Noticings" and "Questions".
